Miss Smith Exchanges Vows With Thomas E. Rubright

Miss Laura Lucy Smith was united in marriage with Thomas E. Rubright at the Rev. W. Glen Harris at a candlelight ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church last Friday evening.

Miss Smith is a beaded sailor collar, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt which swept into a full length train.

In her arms she carried a cascade arrangement of gardenias centered with a white orchid and her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a scalloped halo which featured designs of beading.

Maid of honor, Miss Clara Robison of Northville, wore an orchid taffeta dress and as bridesmaid, Miss Donna Masters of Highland Park was in soft blue taffeta; Miss Pauline Paul of Dearborn wore light pink taffeta and Miss Flossie Chandler was dressed in delicate green taffeta.

Their dresses, of princess lines, were accented with bands of pink roses in the attendants' hair and with colonial bouquets of carnations shaded to match their gowns and pink roses.

Acting as the best man was Lloyd Burkholder of Redford and ushering were Elmer S. Clark, Jr. of Allen Park; William H. Young of Wyandotte and John H. Bryant of Grosse Pointe.

To greet the guests at the reception which followed in the Community House, Mrs. Smith chose a flower toned gown of lace with a ringer trimmed hat and double lavender orchids. Mrs. Rubright wore black lace with a black hat. On her shoulder she also pinned double lavender orchids.

For traveling to Chicago, the new Mrs. Rubright selected an iridescent green gabardine suit with brown accessories.

Upon their return, the couple will make their home at 6134 West Fork, Detroit.
