School Promotional Program

The Board of education has a full schedule which, when analyzed, seems to cover every phase of teacher training in respect to the health of school children.

Talks on nutrition will be given in several schools by Miss Elizabeth Jukes from the state health department, Lansing. The Oakland county health department is sending Dr. Christ, DDS, who will address PTAs throughout the township to further develop the dental program for children.

"State Conservation" was the topic Edward Ray discussed at the teachers' meeting Tuesday afternoon in Southfield 19 school. The evening session was a health talk delivered by Miss Ruth Rodgers, nurse consultant.

The PTA council held a joint meeting and presented a play "Thursdays at Home" by nine faculty members Saturday in the Annie Lathrup school auditorium. Mrs. Spellerberg directed it.

On Thursday, Brooks junior high seventh and eighth graders staged a minstrel show in the auditorium. Students were drilled in their parts by Mrs. Grace Davison, Miss Ruth Ward, Miss Trife Moore and Mrs. Annice Callahan.

Panel Discussion

The Southfield Township Women's Republican club will have a dinner and discussion panel Thursday, March 2 at 6:30 p.m. in Colony hall, Evergreen near Nine Mile road.

Owen J. (Pat) Cleary chairman for state central committee of the Republican party, and John Denman, WJB news commentator, will be on the panel which is to be followed by a question and answer period. Dinner tickets may be secured through the chairman, Mrs. Emma Macdonald, or the president, Mrs. Herman F. Luthy. Persons desirous of hearing the discussion may join the group at 5 p.m., following the dinner. No fee will be charged for the talk.

Building Report

Frank B. Gidley, Southfield township building inspector, reports on building now in progress in this area as follows: "From April 1 through Jan. 30, 1950 the overall figure is $7,811,203. Of this amount $300,000 is in commercial buildings, including school additions; $200,000 for two churches including St. Marks on Evergreen and Townsite Community church and the balance in residences." He said that Beverly Hills and Lathrup village were expanding the most, with Magnolia and Washington village next. The total figure also includes repairs and additions.

Bond Issue

The Southfield township bond issue, to extend the water system to the new high school, was approved by the township board at operator of the station, has been advised to appear at the next board meeting to show cause why it should not be closed.

Kiwanis Sponsors Dance

The Kiwanis club will sponsor a square dance Saturday evening, Feb. 25 at the Annie Lathrup school. Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. The funds raised will be used for the benefit of a boy scout center in the township park on 13 1/2 Mile road.

Prepared "Do you suppose he's in a position to ask me to marry him?" "It should say so. Kiwanis just returned him his ring!"
