

Miss Sybil Martha Finch Is Wed to John Gilbert

Miss Sybil Martha Finch exchanged vows with John Hoyt Gilbert Saturday evening at Kirk in the Hills Church before Dr. Leslie A. Reicht in a double ring ceremony. The Rev. W. Glen Harris assisted at the nuptials which were performed before a setting of white carnations, anemones and white tapers.

The bride was gown in antique ivory satin styled with an Empire waistline and a full circular train. The sleeves were short and she wore long white feathery self covered buttons. Her finger-tip veil was fashioned with lace and net belonging to her great-grandmother and she carried her grandmother's ivory wedding fan which was set with white hyacinths and dwarf ivy.

Henry Hoyt Gilbert acted as best man for his son and the guests were ushered to their places by Bela F. Roberts of Bensaler, Ind.; Robert J. Masten of Elkhart, Ind.; Robert E. Gove of Birmingham and John F. Finch, a brother of the bride from Erie, Pa.
