Club Anniversary
 The 11 birthday anniversary of Lathrup Woman's club was celebrated Monday, when more than 100 club members met in "The House in the Woods."
 The program was a chaff talk on "February Giants" by Arthur A. Sinclair. Mrs. Ford K. Daines the chairman of the tea committee, used Valentine's for the table decorations, with a centerpiece of spring flowers. Mrs. Lee Baker and Mrs. Norman Iversen poured.
 The committee included Mrs.

Walter Howard, Mrs. Richard Coger, Mrs. Norman Iversen and Mrs. William D. White.

Successful Benefit
 The annual benefit party for veterans, held Saturday night, saw 160 persons turn out for the smorgasbord dinner. Mrs. George A. Burnham, chairman, stated that $280 was realized on the project, to be used for hospitalized veterans at Dearborn.
 All foods were prepared by club members.

A barbershop quartette consisting of Mrs. Joseph Dunham, Mrs. Donald Gridley, Mrs. Edward Myers, and Mrs. Christian Davis sang several numbers following the dinner.

Tables for cards were set up in the alcove of the living room and dance music was furnished by Phil and Carl Urdige, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Urdige of the village.

Mrs. George Burnham is post-war service chairman of this district. Assisting her were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Lantz Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Iversen, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Briseborn and George Burnham.

Houseguest
 Dr. and Mrs. Ford K. Daines of Quentin drive have as a house guest the doctor's aunt, Mrs. A. V. Taylor of Little Falls, Minn. The trio will motor to the homestead "Braemar" near Crystal Lake for the weekend.

Club Speaker
 The garden division of Woman's club will meet at the clubhouse at 1:30 p. m., Feb. 20, to hear Walter G. Fenton, state chairman of the woman's National Fair and Garden association. Tea will follow.

Movies and Children
 Lathrup PTA will hold its program before the regular meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 8 p. m. in Lathrup school auditorium. Mrs. Max Williams, present chairman of the district movies division for the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs, and past president of the Greater Detroit movies council, will talk on the "Emotional Effect Movies Have on Children."
 An invitation to all parents, not just PTA members, is extended.

Republican Women
 Annual reports of officers were read at the regular meeting of Southfield township Women's Republican club Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Hugh C. White, scenic drive.

The nominating committee presented the slate which reinstated the officers with the exception of one, Mrs. Anne Castel, former treasurer, who is now second vice-president. Mrs. William Henderson is the new treasurer.

Mrs. Herman F. Luhn, president, said the club is working with the Southfield township board in making a file of registered voters' names. Members will urge voters to be ready for elections.

Club membership has doubled the past year and a membership drive, now in progress, will end with a tea at the close of Lent.
 The club completed plans for a supper and panel discussion on March 2, the place to be set later. Panel speakers will be John Benjamin, radio commentator; Owen J. Cleary, state central chairman of the GOP, and Herman F. Luhn, national director of public relations of VFW. Mrs. Eamon Rutledge is in charge of dinner arrangements with Mrs. H. C. White, Mrs. Dudley P. Frame, Mrs. William Donner and Mrs. Emma Macdonald assisting.

Headmistress

MISS MARION GOODALE
 Appointment of Miss Marion E. Goodale, assistant principal of Northrop Collegiate School, Minneapolis, to succeed Miss Margaret Angus as headmistress of Kingswood School Cranbrook when she retires at the end of the current school year, has been announced.
 Miss Grace Fry, new director of studies will become assistant headmistress, effective July 1.
 Miss Angus is concluding her 16th year as Kingswood's head, and is the first member of the faculty to take advantage of the school's retirement plan. She will spend a year in travel.
 Miss Goodale attended the University of Michigan from which she was graduated "cum laude" in 1929.
 From 1940 to 1947, she was head of the mathematics department and executive assistant at Northrop Collegiate School, since when she has held her present administrative position.
