Theatre Group Will Hear Guest Speaker

The Children's Theatre Group of AAUW will meet at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 16, in the Community House to hear George F. Green speak on the "History of Costuming."

Mrs. Green will discuss the history of costuming in the theatre from the Egyptian period to present time using as illustrations patchwork dolls she has made.

According to Mrs. Green, the history of costuming is closely linked to costume of dress but not identical. The theatre has established certain forms and formalities which it has retained. However, Mrs. Green will show designs today and the influence the design of clothes in shows and movies have on current fashion styles.

Program Series Dates Announced

On Feb. 11, there'll be a Valentine workshop for those boys and girls who like to make their own greeting cards beginning at 10:30 a.m. in the Children's Museum, 5204 Cass, Detroit. This is part of a series of programs being sponsored by the Detroit Public Schools.

On Feb. 18, Mrs. Ralph Frank will give a demonstration for beginning photographers with tips in the "best ways to success in a hobby." The Feb-25 program is entitled "Treasure Chest: Sailing to Europe" by Mrs. Lucille Pullman who will tell how a small town, complete with theatre and shops, look on the ships. She will also talk about the children she met and the interesting things she saw in many countries.

Will Make Home in Hillsdale

The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the rites which united Mrs. Charles A. Keroson and Mr. Charles F. Pineson at 8:00 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson of Lincoln court and

MRS. THOMAS H. CLARK

Mrs. Thomas H. Clark, wife of Thomas H. Clark, of Bloomfield Hills. The nuptials were performed Saturday at 3:00 o'clock in St. Dunstan's Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook and a reception followed at the Bloomfield Hills residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Bromley.

Green is marriage by her father, Miss Sanderson was in an aqua wool suit which featured covered, ruffled buttons. Under the jacket she wore a matching lace blouse. Her hat of aqua wool was highlighted with flowers and veil and her bridal bouquet was of white callulias and freesias.

As maid of honor, Miss Sylvia Robbins of Birmingham wore a beige and brown wool suit with a matching yellow flower trimmed hat and brown accessories. In her arms was a bouquet of yellow carnations. Wesley Carlson of Detroit served Mr. Clark as his best man.

For the event Mrs. Sanderson selected a beige wool gabardine suit with a matching hat which featured black trim and a black veil. On her shoulder was a corsage of brown orchids.

Mrs. Clark was dressed in a green crepe dress with a green and white and white baby orchid set in ivy.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Miami, Fla. and Cuba, the couple will make their home in Hillsdale, Mich.

OES Minstrel Show

The Oakland County Association of the Order of the Eastern Star has completed plans for a minstrel show to be held in the Pontiac high school auditorium on Saturday, Feb. 25 at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are available from worthy matrons of all chapters. Daisy Howlitt of Bloomfield Hills is chairman of the affair.

For that empty, all-gone feeling which creeps over one about four o'clock in the afternoon, the Girl Scouts will be the answer: nibble a Girl Scout cookie of course! So popular are cookies these days that they are sold with their creamy filling, that the "girls in green" are taking orders again this week from their friends and neighbors. Each troop selling cookies will receive a generous share of the proceeds for their troop treasury.

Troop 28
Scribe Mary Miner of Troop 28 at Pierce school reports the past and present activities of her fifth grade intermediate Scout troop: "Troop 20 of Holy Name school is a group of 14 girls working towards their Curved Bar. We have had a busy and interesting year so far, under the direction of Mrs. Perry Fremont and Mrs. G. A. Zink.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Zink, making a baby quilt for the Needlework Guild, and followed this by decorating garden gloves and considering baby bibs for the PTA Bazaar. Coming as a break from our sewing, we had a lovely Christmas party at Rotunda Inn, which turned out to be a surprise birthday party for one of the "Six." The holidays are over we are back to work on our badges."

Troop 23
Nicholas Parsons, who was scribe and hostess for the last meeting of this Brownie troop at Pierce school, reports a busy time. They elected Brownies to take part in the Easter play at Rotunda. They are giving at the Girl Scout Fair on April 1. The Easter Bunny will be Jan. 1. Treasurer is Lenora Aldred. Others elected were Sue Bredscoter and Nicky Parsons, Jan. 1. Stirling is Lenora Aldred. These patrol chairmen were elected and Sandra Trathan is the new treasurer. Preparatory plans were laid for a Valentine party at which Troop 26 will be entertained.
