

Dostal-Hackett Vows Exchanged

Following their marriage Saturday morning in Geor Church, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kenneth Dostal left for Fort Lauderdale, Fla. For traveling, the former Mary Jo Hackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis William Hackett of Oak Drive, chose an ice cream gabbardine suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Joseph Dostal of Overhill road, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mr. Dostal.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a camellia white satin gown fashioned with a Spanish lace collar and a full skirt which swept into a long train. Her tiered veil of illusion tulle fell from a halo of illusion which was banded in lace and her bridal bouquet was made up of white carnations and lilies centered with a white orchid.

Attending were a sister, Mrs. John Den Boer of New York, matron of honor, Mrs. Irving J. Helanger, Miss Noresen Joan Hackett, also sisters of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Dostal who were bridesmaids. All were in white chastity lace over teta accented with American Beauty
