Scout college will be guest speaker. A membership drive is under way and interested persons are invited to join the group. Mrs. Clarence Chapman is president.

News Notes
The Edward Dooleys, formerly of Goldensate drive, have purchased the home of the late Carl Uhlmann and Mrs. Uhlmann of Monon Court. Mr. Uhlmann was slain with a fatal heart attack in Sarasota, Fla.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stevenson and son Bruce are vacationing in Florida and during their absence their home is being occupied by relatives.
The Stanley Walkers of San Jose drive were hosts at a supper and TV party Sunday night.

Learns Latest Facts
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—George E. Leitert, 17193 Kirkshire, Birmingham, Mich., is here taking a special course in hardware merchandising at the College of the City of New York.

Paper Drive
Lathrup Cub Scouts Troop B-14 worked like beavers in a blinding wind and rain storm to collect papers and magazines. Cubmaster Charles Gorman reported a profit of $105 from the sale, which will be used to help buy necessary Cub Scout equipment.

Farewell Party
A farewell party for members of the St. Sebastian Guild was given Monday in honor of Mrs. E. A. Michelin who is moving to Florida. Mrs. Edward Brunner of Vinetta boulevard was hostess. The Guild held its regular breakfast meeting Tuesday morning at Bellangers Tea room with 35 members present. Mrs. Lawrence McLaughlin, president, conducted the meeting.

Membership Drive
Seton Guild, an organization working with underprivileged children at the Sarah Fisher Home on west 13 Mile road, will hold its regular meeting, tomorrow, at 2 p.m. The Rev. Vincent of Dun

Traffic Control
Members of Lathrup PTA heard William Mikulas, president of the Township Men's association, report on what has been done to alleviate traffic conditions on Southfield road. Through the efforts of that organization, traffic counters are soon to be placed on Southfield between Nine and 14 Mile roads, to determine the best way to insure the safety of the school children against the hazards of fast-moving traffic near the Annie Lathrup school.

The next meeting of the association will be Feb. 15 in Lathrup school.

Mrs. Ben D. Mills, who spent several years with American Red Cross in England, talked about the English school system.

Randall Penhale of the United States Treasury explained a plan whereby pupils could buy savings stamps. The sale will be handled by a PTA representative, Mrs. E. S. Cobb, rather than by teachers.

Y Varsity Drops First Home Game

The Birmingham YMCA men's varsity quintet lost its initial home game of the current season to St. Antoine YMCA of Detroit, 59 to 43 on the Birmingham junior high floor last Thursday evening. St. Antoine scored 21 points in the last quarter to overcome a scoring spree of the Stark Green when they freed Jack Dinkson for consecutive shots under the basket.

Shinson led the scoring with a total of 14 points. He was followed by teammate, Jack Cardwell, with 17 points.

Roge Reynolds had seven baskets and three shots paced the local five, supported by Tom Masco who scored 14 points.

Will Try for 3rd Win
St. Antoine stepped into a 30 to 19 lead at the end of the first half through their ability to control the rebounds from the backboard.

Jim Robinson and Lonzo Wright played good defensive basketball for the Detroit quintet and held the Birmingham forwards in check. One of the features of the game was the foul shooting of localities who sank eight out of nine attempts.

Birmingham "Y" meets the Downtown Branch of Detroit on the Barnum floor this evening, and will try for its third win of the year in eight starts.

Birmingham defeated their opponents in their last meeting in December. Coach Don Little invites the public to come out and witness this game. There is no admission charge.

Soeder-St. Clair Rites Are Read

Miss Betty Louise St. Clair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William St. Clair of Royal Oak was married Saturday to Don Soeder of Iron Mountain, Mich. The Rev. L. H. Partner officiated at the seven o'clock nuptials, which were read in the Redeemer Lutheran Church on West Maple avenue.

The bride chose white chiffon velvet for her wedding and carried a white orchid centered in orange blossoms and white carnations with ivy accents upon white Bible. Her fingertip veil was held by a Chantilly lace edged Juliet cap.

Mrs. Edward Klum of Ann Arbor as honor matron wore red velvet with a white bonnet and muff which were pinned pink and white camellias. The bridesmaid was Miss Alice M. Soeder of Ferndale who was in teal blue with accessories to match Mrs. Klum's, and Faith Soeder, as junior bridesmaid wore baby blue chiffon velvet with a white bonnet. Her flowers were in a colonial arrangement.

Donald Fleming of Pleasant Ridge served as best man and ushering the guests were Arthur Adams of Ferndale, William St. Clair, a brother of the bride and Robert Enders.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left on a wedding trip to Chicago. Upon their return they will live in Birmingham at 156 Oakland.
