Mrs. George Hebblewhite, (right) 88, mother of Mrs. Louis Hascall, is shown as she boarded a Florida-bound Eastern Airlines "Constellation" Saturday morning for her first flight. Pictured with her is her granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Sears, a former resident of Birmingham now of Chicago.
Mrs. Hebblewhite will spend the next two or three months with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Sears at Sanibel Island, Fla., while Miss Sears spends her vacation with her parents. Mrs. Hascall said Tuesday that she had heard from her mother.
"The trip was fine and mother was so thrilled when she was met by photographers there, too," she said.

BIRMINGHAM VETERANEWS

Compiled from Various State and National Veterans Information Centers

Naval Reserve Officers who do not participate in an organized or volunteer reserve training program will be placed on the inactive status list, according to an announcement by Captain James P. Walker, commanding officer of the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station. Such officers will not be eligible for promotion or for retirement under the new reserve retirement program. This new policy has been put in effect in order to weed out officers who are not able to participate in a program to maintain their naval skills.
By placing these officers on an inactive status, promotion of officers within the organized and volunteer reserve will be accelerated and room will be made for the procurement of junior officers.
The Grosse Ile Naval Air Station is now able to take on an unlimited number of naval reserve officers in a volunteer status for training one weekend a month. Officers can contact the senior type training officer at the Air Station for full particulars.

Society club news must be submitted by noon each Monday.

Alumni Defeats Maple Varsity

By Bud Boynton
Swamped by a superior alumni team, the Maple varsity lost 40-29 last Friday night in the high school gym.

The alumni varsity consisted of nine lads from last year's Eastern Michigan League Championship squad. Jimmie Anderson was the only representative of previous years.

Bob Polin, forward, was acting captain and led the scoring with 14 points.
Participating were Pat Wall, Duke University; Skip Halpin, now on the Alma varsity basketball squad; Duke Layland, freshman at Colgate University; Clay Joyce, Washington and Jefferson; Dick Murray, Ohio Wesleyan; Lucius Jackson, Michigan State; Rolfe McGinnis, Wisconsin; and Keith McIntyre.

Leading the varsity squad was Barry Wall with nine points. High scorers were Warren Rouse for the Alumni with 11 points and Barry Harper and Dave Sale with seven points apiece for the Maples.

Players for the alumni were Warren Rouse, Jack Hardy, Stan Boynton, Charley Thomas, Colin Campbell, Tiny Forester, Peter Torres, and Hugh Morrow.
