Tom deGraffenried To Star In Next Will-O-Way Comedy

TOM deGRAFFENRIED
July 18 and run through July 30.
"Life With Mother" shows promise of many good laughs with the usual Will-O-Way touch of perfection.

Will-O-Way's third production of the season, "Life With Mother" by Howard Lindsay and Russel Croft is now in rehearsal.
The authors of this production have collaborated in the writing of many plays such as the Pulitzer prize winner, "State of the Union", "Life With Father", the original of the "Day family series" and the longest running in the United States.
They have also done 3 musicals, "Anything Goes", "Red, Hot and Blue" and "Hoory for What" as well as several motion pictures.
"Life With Mother" was first played at the Empire theater in New York in October of 1948 and starred Dorothy Siskney as Winnie and Howard Lindsay as father.
In the Will-O-Way production, Tom deGraffenried will play the father and Thelma Texas will appear in the role of Winnie. Two Birmingham women are also cast in this wonderful comedy of American family life.
Loree Carnick will play Bessie Tuller Logan and Norrie Scott, who has been an active member of the Village Players for nineteen years, will be Mrs. Willoughby. She appeared in the mother roles of "Dear Ruth", in 1948 and in "John Loves Mary" during this past year.
There are 5 red-heads in the family, father and Winnie, of course, and 3 sons. Twelve year old Bruce Richards of Farmington who has been an actor since the age of 8, including a year's work on WJL television, will take over the role of Whitney and Billy Merrill, son of the director William Way, is making his first appearance in the part of Harlan. Frederick Taylor, versatile actor and stage manager, will play the part of John.
June Sanderson of Royal Oak, who is well known for her monologues and dialects around the club circuit, is cast as Bridgett. The ever popular Gerald M. Harrington will be seen in the part of Dr. Humphreys.
Also, Clyde Miller will be played by George Hunter. Clarence by Nick Reichardt and Michael portrayed by an apprentice.
Harriet Bennett, a John Bee and a junior at the University of Michigan will carry the part of Hazel Willoughby with Kathleen played by Dianne Barry of Detroit.
This hilarious comedy, complete with costuming of the period of the late eighties will open Tuesday.

BIRTHS
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Restrick of Stanley street announced the birth of a daughter, Cynthia Lee, on July 2. Mrs. Restrick is the former Patricia Rose of Birmingham.

Miss Joy Woolson Becomes Bride of Neil Talmage, Jr.

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting for the wedding last evening of Miss Joy Woolson, daughter of Mrs. Lionel M. Woolson of Waddington road and the late Captain Woolson, to Neil C. Talmage, Jr. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Talmage of Cranbrook Cross road.
The Rev. George P. Clark read the service as the bride was given in marriage by Colonel Jesse G. Vincent of Grosse Pointe.

MISS WOOLSON was gowned in cream organza over white satin, embroidered with lilies-of-the-valley. Her three-quarter length illusion veil fell from a white satin halo hat edged with the same flowers and she carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley with spray orchids.
The matron of honor, Mrs. Edward C. Moore of Chicago, was her sister's only attendant. Her gown was fashioned of yellow nylon with a headress of shasta daisies and she carried an arrangement of majestic daisies.
Tiny nephews of the bride, Eddie and Chris Moore of Chicago served as ring-bearers.

JAMES REYNOLDS of Detroit acted as best man and seating the guests were Edward C. Moore of Chicago, William Delahunty of Detroit, Kenneth Hanna of Birmingham and Frank Nair, Jr. of Detroit.
For her daughter's wedding and following reception, Mrs. Woolson chose a gown of blue chiffon and lace over pink taffeta with matching hat and corsage of pink lilies.

Mary Ellen Haack Home From Germany After 2-Year Stay

Miss Mary Ellen Haack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haack of Twelve Mile road returned home this week after spending over 2 years in Germany, where she was employed with the Army Special Services in the capacity of program director.
Miss Haack spent seventeen months in Schwabach and during the last 9 months she was stationed in Munich.
After receiving her bachelor of science degree from Michigan State college, Miss Haack attended the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit, where she met Miss Betty Graber of Olympia, Wash.
Miss Haack and Miss Graber went to Germany together, were assigned to the same Club in Munich and were companions on most of their interesting vacation trips.
They visited every country in Europe that was open to travel. The girls also enjoyed many delightful weekends skiing in the Bavarian Alps, Austria and Switzerland.
Among Miss Haack's marvelous experiences was a trip to Oberammergau, where she saw the world famous "Passion Play".
Miss Haack returned to Michigan with matching hat and corsage of pink lilies.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S MOTHER wore a frock of aqua, embroidered with beads, a matching hat and orchid corsage.
Following the reception, the new Mrs. Talmage, Jr. donned a suit of powder blue silk shantung and small Panama hat for her wedding trip to northern Michigan.
