Open House
Main Street Men's club has planned an outstanding program for tonight's open house to be held at Southfield Methodist church. Don Wattrick, Detroit radio and television commentator, will talk on "Sports Parade". Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bishop will be honor guests. Their son John was the club's representative at Wolverine Boys State last month at East Lansing.

Luncheon Hostess
Mrs. Chester Beach entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Benford of Detroit, at a dinner at Devon Gables. She also entertained a canasta luncheon group Friday at Howard Johnstons.

Eastern Trip
Mrs. E. H. Johnston and daughter, Mary Ellen from Miami, Fla., are visiting Mrs. Johnston's sister, Mrs. Richard Schilsky of Lathrup boulevard. Together they journeyed to New York City on a sight seeing trip visiting Hyde Park, the Roosevelt's and Vanderbilt mansions and other places of interest.

Home Again
Frank Diederich returned home from Torch Lake Sunday after visiting his brother, Donald and family.

Returning from a two weeks camping trip at Camp Kitanawa near Hastings are, Karen Targart, Jean and Joan Zink, Barbara Pierce and Susan Bishop, all of Lathrup Village.

Oil Applied
Oil was applied on some streets in the village Saturday after two applications of calcium chloride failed to keep down the dust. In addition, some complainants claimed that their newly painted homes were tarnished due to the heavy trucking of building materials for new homes.

Semaphore Erected
A semaphore has recently been erected at the corner of Lahesq and 12 Mile roads. Petitions were submitted by residents of that area to the Oakland county road commission for something to be done to cut down the accident toll. During the past year, six persons have been killed and 14 injured at this intersection.

Sea Scouts and Lions Have Get-Together

Last Wednesday was get-together day for the members of the Birmingham Lions Club and members of the Sea Scout Ship "Hunter", which they sponsor. Twenty members of the club and fourteen members of the sea scout ship spent the evening at Camp George, swimming, sailing and eating a picnic dinner.

With the scouts, was Glenn Watson, new skipper of the ship and Don Flynn, neighborhood counselor. Robert Gougeon, representing the Lions Club as sponsoring director, was also in attendance. Another guest was Harold DeOrlow, scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop B-1, sponsored by the local Lions.

I. CICILE says:
"That R & M FAN has what it takes to keep me sharp and crisp... turn it off and I'm just another drip."
