Miss Theodosia Thompson Married in Eastern Rites

Miss Theodosia Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford Thompson of Bloomfield Hills became the bride of Robert John Kelsey on July 15.

a niece of the bride, Miss Deborah Jones of Marblehead, attended Miss Thompson as bridesmaid.

Their frocks were of aqua pique, fashioned in the style of the honor maid's and they carried old-fashioned bouquets with showers of yellow ribbon streamers.

MISS LOUELLA CROTHERS of Royal Oak, Mich., assisted Miss Thompson as vocal soloist for the wedding.

Richard A. Gray, Jr., of Milton, Mass., a brother of the bridegroom acted as best man and the ushers were James Marshall of Dalton and Francis Vigness of Amherst, Mass. The men were all classmates at the University of Massachusetts.

MRS. ROBERT KELSEY

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gray of Cambridge, Mass., and Ventura, Calif.

The Rev. Warren Herrick read the double ring ceremony at the Martha Mary Chapel in South Sudbury, Mass.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown of white silk pique with a small round collar, gannulets and mantilla style veil made of her maternal grandmother's heirloom lace.

Her finger-tip mantilla veil was held by a cloche and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and blue forget-me-nots with ivy streamers.

AS HER SISTER'S maid of honor, Miss Harriet Thompson was gowned in yellow pique with a matching smocked Juliet cap. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of garden flowers with ivy streamers.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Dianna Kelsey of Cambridge and
