What's Being Planned By BIRMINGHAM CHURCHES

Baptist
This Sunday the Rev. Emil Koutz will be in the pulpit again. He has been attending the sessions of the Baptist World Alliance meeting in Cleveland, Ohio. The alliance was attended by over 30,000 delegates and visitors from all over America and more than 45 countries of the world. Formal sessions were preceded by a parade of Baptist clergy and laity from many quarters of the globe. The opening session was addressed by President Truman. Music was provided by a choir of 4,000 voices and the noted singer, Marjorie Anderson was soloist. In addition to the Rev. and Mrs. Koutz, several families of the local congregation attended.

A RECENT pulpit guest at the First Baptist church was the Rev. Nicholas M. Dully of Los Angeles, Cal. He is the father of Mrs. Emil Koutz and has served many years as a home missionary worker where much of his service was among people of various nationality groups. For several years he served as a special American evangelist in southern and central Europe.

Other guest preachers have been secured to supply the pulpit during the vacation absence of the pastor. Members and friends of the church recently gathered for the traditional summer party, sponsored by the Board of Deacons. Highlight of the evening was a "midnet wedding" directed by Mrs. Edwin Minks.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL children staged a mock wedding with Carol Olsen as the bride, Danny Akeryer the groom, Charles Bunyan as the minister and the soloist was Marvin Smith.

Others who participated included Alan Davison, Paul Turner, Ronald Thurston, Elizabeth Thomson, Lois Moorhead, Nancy Olsen, James Eskew, Judy Bunyan, Chuckie Bunyan, Joan Kidd, Sally Hunt, Judy Akeryer, David Mitchell, Carol Verry, Marnie Thurston, Barbara Baker, Ann Wedell, Judy Seager and Sharon Bonner.

Local Boys at Music Camp in Interlochen
William Berndt, 2539 East Male and Ronald Phillips, 998 Hazel, are among the 150 high school boys and girls who are at the summer sessions of the National Music Camp at Interlochen. Both boys are cornetists.
The all-star symphonic band of 84 pieces, in which the two are taking part, can be heard over WKAR Friday evening from 6 to 7 p.m. The band is under the direction of Dale Harris of Pontiac.

News and society copy must be in the Eccentric editorial office by 4:30 each Tuesday afternoon.
