Twosome

Pick a pocket; pick a skirt and blouse—and you're in the know, fashionably speaking. The pocket on this cotton plaid skirt is detachable. The "bat blouse" with dropped shoulders is white-on-white cotton shirting.

Sun Loung

Sailcloth is chosen for this dramatic two part sun costume. The large stand-up collar is typical of this year's covered-up blouse look for haliters. The "redingote" shirt, all in one piece, combines a straight front panel in white with a whirling circle of navy.

WITH THE Collegians

News has been received from Purdue University that William H. Daeschner was elected secretary of his fraternity, Phi Gamma Delta. He also received his Glimet Cap which signifies his membership in the Campus Activities honorary for organized men. Miss Katherine Daeschner who also attends Purdue, was initiated last Sunday into Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daeschner, 412 Berwyn.

Miss Ann Gardner of Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, graduated recently from Hillsdale College where she is affiliated with the Chi Omega Rho Gamma chapter, and has been recently elected to the Women's Athletic Association. Bernard Nye Levinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Levinson, 2150 Northlawn, was graduated Wednesday evening in commerce and finance from the University of Detroit.

SUN-SATIONAL—Latest gimmick to protect the fair sex from the harsh rays of summer sun is this "Solar-Tie," a combination silk scarf and eyeshade. The manufacturer claims the acetate visor prevents even tanning while eliminating glare. The scarf can be draped in a number of ways to shield the hair and anchor the sunshade for beach and travel wear.
