Special Honors Awarded Students at Cranbrook

The awards night ceremony at Cranbrook school was held last Friday evening at the assembly hall.

Brooke W. Stabler, headmaster, opened the program, followed by Gordon O. Alico, chairman of the Cranbrook board of directors. Paul Thompson reviewed the athletic year and the headmaster announced that the "C" club award given to the senior who has contributed most in sports, sportsmanship and ability to the athletic life of the school during the academic year went to Rufus Beardsley.

THE FLETCHER decathlon medal for the greatest number of points accumulated in track and field sports was awarded to Richard Wilson. Charles Carter was appointed chairman of the Christ Church student cabinet for the coming year.

"Brook," editor, Bruce Williams received a gold charm in recognition of his efforts as did Cal Patterson, editor of "The Crane," the school paper. Next year Bob Walters will edit the "Brook" and Earl Wiener, the "Crane."

New members of The Quill and Scroll society, organization for high school journalists, sponsored by Northwestern University, are Cal Patterson, Dick Zeder, Les Funsten, John Roberts, Earl Wiener, William James, Dick Eycyk, Jay Corley, Tom Galatowicz, David Higgins, John McDonald, Robert Walter, Al Levy and Jon Desenberg.

GOLD PINS for three years of activity with Equestrian, Cranbrook's dramatic society were received by Michael Redfield, Norman Boujon, Richard Wilson, Robert Walter and John Roberts.

Silver pins for two years' service were awarded Dick BeGole, Larry Burrows, Louis Deming, Jon Desenberg, Charles Lead, Tom Hawley, Jan Simpson, Gene Tolfree, Tony Underhill and Fred Wagener.

Certificates for one year went to Jim August, Marvin Bernstein, Mark Fleischman, Bob Gentry, Chris Huntley, Tom Lowmes, Frank Huss, Dave Meginty, Buddy Moore, Seelye Pratt, Nick Redfield, Kai Schoenhals, John Strain, Henry Winkelman, Bob Whitlatch and Dick Brant.

Officers for the coming year will be Gene Tolfree and Jan Simpson.

JOHN McDONALD won the rifle awards division and the club high score went to Tom Connor, for consistently obtaining the highest scores in competitive matches. Club championships were given to Tom Connor, Jack Knoblock and Erwin Strain.

Lower school students obtaining the highest scores during the year were David Higbie, Robert Chapman and Edward Macaulay.

The Cranbrook art medal was received by John McDonald and music medals went to Robert Kerns and Tom Galatowicz.

New band officers for 1950 are Richard Sattler, president and Robert Kimes, secretary-treasurer. New band officers are Gordon Rosenthal and Robert Ward.

Assistant Headmaster Harry D. Hoey, announced that students who had been on the honor roll all year were David Ball, Alan Carlin, Robert Chapman, George Colwell, Charles Cunningham, George Glover, John Hatch, Stanley Hirt, Chris Huntley, John Manley, Frederick Mills, John Neff, William Salot, Bill Vary and Robert Whitlatch.

ROBERT SUKENIK, received the Rensselaer Polytechnic institute award for the senior who has achieved distinction in the fields of science and mathematics. The Morris P. Tilley award for scholarly writing was awarded Cal Patterson for his paper entitled "The Valley of Decision."

Book purchase certificates for lending their respective forms in scholarship went to first former Alan Carlin with Francis Duncan Glover and Frank Duffy runner up; third form, David Taylor with John Hatch and Dean Rogers tied in the fourth form; fifth form, Jan Simpson with Richard Dexter runner up. Members elected to Jean Laude for this year are John Manley, Ted Mills and Louis Deming.

The Trinity award for the senior, not a prefect, who has made the greatest contribution to the school went to Dick Zeder.

Prefects for next year will be Fritz Friday, assisted by Charles Carter, William James, Jan Simpson, Eugene Tolfree, Tom Connor, Robert Kimes, Jack Knoblock, Richard Sattler, Ralph Thomas, Robert Wumley, Richard Doll and Chris Huntley.
