Kirk in the Hills Scene of Marriage at Noon Saturday

MRS. ROBERT KAUKOLA

At a high noon wedding Saturday in Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian church Miss Jean Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Kelly, became the bride of Robert Kaukola, son of Mrs. Josephine Kaukola of Rock, Mich. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leslie A. Reicher.

The bride chose a ballerina length dress of white lace over tulle, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her 30-ounce length veil of silk illusion was caught in a lace cap which matched her gown. Her bridal bouquet of gardenias and shattered carnations was attached to an antique fan.

She was attended by Miss June DeBoer of Grand Rapids as maid of honor and Mrs. James Carr of Detroit as bridesmaid.

Miss DeBoer wore a gown of turquoise sheer, styled similarly to that of the bride. Mrs. Carr, cousin of the bride, wore a pink sheer ballerina gown. Both carried cascade bouquets of daisies and ivy, which also comprised their head-dresses.

James Carr of Detroit was best man and the guests were seated by Harry Smith, also of Detroit.

For their honeymoon through northern Michigan Mrs. Kaukola chose a pale pink suit with navy accessories and wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Bronsing-Christie Rites Were Solemnized Yesterday

MRS. VINCENT BRONSING

The marriage of Miss Virginia Katherine Christie and Vincent Jerome Bronsing was solemnized yesterday morning at St. Eugene of the Hills church. The Rev. Francis Stack officiated. John Patrick MacMahon and Edger Grant were servers, with John McKenzie, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Christie of Brown Gables on North Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Bronsing, 1063 Madison, are the parents of the groom.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of camellia white whisper tulle fashioned in coachman style. The neckline was finished with scallops which continue down the front of the dress from throat to hemline.

The tight fitted bodice was molded into a full gored skirt which swept into a cathedral train. Her hairloom veil of chantilly type lace edged with a Brussels applique, was held in place by a medieval court headpiece from which the lace fell over silk illusion.

She carried a prayer book tied with alstroemeria and lily of the valley.

She was attended by Miss Joan Lawlor, maid of honor; Mrs. Clyde von Grimmenstein, matron of honor; and Miss Ann Bronsing, bridesmaid. Juanita Martin Christie and Mary Jo Ellwood were flower girls.

Her attendants were gowned in identical dresses of romance blue organza with an embossed floral design on the bodice and upper skirt. They were styled with wide portulac necklines with deep stand-up cuffs and matching tulle sashes. Bands of natural straw, woven with daisies and ivy, were worn as headpieces.

The flower girls wore bouffant frocks of white embossed organza over romance blue tulle petticoats, with wide matching tulle sashes. Their headpieces matched those of the bride's attendants.

The maid of honor carried a bouquet of yellow daisies and ivy, while the two bridesmaids carried white daisies and ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams have returned home from a visit at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Miss Joan Lawlor of Martell drive was hostess last week at the spinster dinner given for Miss Virginia Christie.

This coming Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reicher will entertain at the rehearsal dinner at Devon Gables for their daughter, Sally.

Sailing on June 27 after a few days in New York will be Miss Clara Gordon who left for Paris, is going to Geneva, Switzerland, to study at the University. She also plans to travel to Edinburgh, Scotland for the Music Festival from Aug. 20 to Sept. 10 and will return to the states on Sept. 18.

Miss Mary Ann Maher and Jack O'Leary entertained recently at a cocktail party in the Maher residence in Detroit for Miss Gloria Cavanaugh.

Arriving home shortly from Bradford Junior College will be Miss Anne Bennet of Westwood drive; Miss Eloise Day of Henrietta street; Miss Elizabeth Miller of Fairfax avenue and Miss Joan Patten of Bloomfield Hills.

Mrs. E. F. Graham of LaVerne, Calif., and her children, Dick and Judy are visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Bird of Oakland avenue. Mrs. Graham is the former Marvel Carson.
