SOMETHING OLD...SOMETHING NEW...

And if you are one who is looking for something borrowed too, we have a suggestion for you. Search in your grandmother's (or your mother's) attic for some old, nostalgic treasure. You may find something from an old French period, or something Egyptian, Empire, or an Early Colonial, or Federal American piece. If you find something, don't worry about the Period... borrow it! It will lend tone to your entire room. Lift it out of the ordinary.

The hanging shelves in the room shown above are old Chipendale pieces, but they blend beautifully with today's fluid Modern. They give the room an air of elegance without ostentation.

The long black table in front of the low davenport gives a feel-

BEER
AMERICA'S BEVERAGE OF MODERATION

The American Way

The words "Michigan" and "fishing" are practically synonymous at this time of the year. And after an exciting day's fishing, it's the "American Way" to enjoy a glass of cool, refreshing Michigan brewed beer to top off the day.

For beer is the kind of beverage Americans like. It belongs... to pleasant living, to good fellowship, to sensible moderation. And our right to enjoy it, like too, belongs... to our own American heritage of personal freedom. Beer Belongs... Enjoy It!
