Nuptials Solemnized in Christ Church Cranbrook

A reception at the Orchard Lake Country Club followed the wedding Friday evening of Miss Barbara Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lincoln Fry of Pierce street and Richard Evan Hale, who is the son of Mr. Claude E. Hale of Marshall, Mich., and the late Doctor Hale. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the nuptials.

MRS. RICHARD E. HALE

Wearing white French organdy, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Designer's highlights on her dress featured embroidered sprays of lily of the valley, a fitted bodice which was trimmed with small buttons down the front and a tailored collar.

Her full-skirt swept into a long train and a small cap of organdy edged with pearls held the illusion cathedral veil. In her arms she carried white roses, lily of the valley and ivy.

Mrs. David Underwood Thomas, a sister, was in white organdy embroidered with rose-colored dots with a band of ivy and tiny flowers in her hair and a bouquet of pink roses, coral flowers, sweet peas with rose streamers in a colonial arrangement.

The bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Marvin of Ames, Iowa; Miss Marjory Gutfreund of Des Moines, Iowa; Miss Shirley Sylvester of Birmingham; Mrs. Richard Craig of Bloomfield Hills, and another sister of the bride, Mrs. Geoffrey J. Lettworth, Jr., of East Aurora, N. Y., wore white organdy with blue embroidery and held colonial bouquets of pink roses, coral flowers and white sweet peas with blue streamers.

The best man was Kenneth

Kelly of Pleasant Ridge, Mich., and the guests were seated by Robert Koch of Detroit; John B. Fry, a brother of the bridegroom of Marshall; and from Birmingham, David U. Thomas, Walter L. Fry, and from the Cranbrook area, Mrs. Fry chose a dusty pink gown of chiffon and lace with a matching hat for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in an ice blue ensemble with a matching straw hat.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Hale selected a blue gabardine suit with matching hat trimmed with a pink veil and pink accessories.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Marshall.

AAUW Theatre Concludes 7th Year

The Children's Theatre Group of AAUW has concluded its 7th consecutive year of presenting plays for the children of Birmingham. These shows have progressed from one production a year to the season ticket plan which includes four plays. Thus, the children are afforded the opportunity of actual theatre experience and are able to see many of the classics.

During the Christmas season the children of the Oakland County Juvenile Home were invited to request their favorite songs and copies of the lyrics were provided. Mrs. Walter Skinner played the piano while Mr. Frank D. Webb directed the singing. Talent shown was also held and each child desiring was allowed to perform. The puppet group gave two shows. Next year it is hoped to include the Baptist's Children's home in this program.

The Children's Theatre project is carried on as a civic service as near operational costs as is feasible. Whenever the Children's Theatre treasury shows a surplus the money is donated to the cause of children. This year $400 will be donated for needed equipment at the Oakland County Juvenile Home.

It is planned to furnish the rooms with suitable desks and chairs and provide a movie camera. Mrs. Anthony Daley and Mrs. John Gilray, Jr. are the retiring co-chairmen. The 1950-51 season will be headed by Mrs. Stanley R. Hood and Mrs. William Kegel.

Penny Drive Results

Mrs. Paul Wilson, chairman of finance for the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, announces that the final total of the Girl Scouts' annual Penny Drive reached the figure of $281.47.
