Miss Sally Ellen Kreidler is Wed in Evening Ceremony

Miss Sally Ellen Kreidler became the bride of Floyd R. Griffith, Jr., of Delaware, Ohio, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Griffith at an evening ceremony in St. James Church this last Saturday. The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, Charles A. Kreidler of Dorchester road, the bride was in candlelight satin fashioned with a low, square neckline and yoke of French Chantilly lace, a fitted basque bodice and a full skirt which extended into a cathedral train.

Featured on the gown was a band of Chantilly inserted at the hipline. A dutch cap of matching lace studded with seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried gardenias and stephanotis.

As matron of honor, Mrs. William Kreidler carried deep red peonies and the maid of honor, Miss Doris Drum of Carlisle, Pa., had a bouquet of pale pink peonies. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Ward, a cousin of Springfield, Ill.; Miss Nancy Allen of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Clare Nichols of Bowling Green carried deep red peonies.

All attendants wore turquoise taffeta dresses highlighted with venetian lace and wore matching tulle hats.

Ushering were William Kreidler, Robert Dunham, Charles Gregg and Judd Mullhon and Thomas Wenzlau of Tipp City, Ohio, served as the best man.

MRS. FLOYD GRIFFITH

For the wedding and reception which was held at the Kreidler home, Mrs. Kreidler wore a champagne lace gown with a lace hat and an orchid corsage.

As the couple left on a motor trip, the bride was wearing a honey colored gabardine ensemble with alligator accessories. Upon their return they will make their home in Delaware, Ohio.
