

Miss Doris Jones Becomes Bride of J. Robert Dean

Miss Doris Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Jones of Pierce street became the bride of J. Robert Dean last Saturday in a service performed by the Rev. Emil Kontis in the First Baptist Church. He is the son of Mrs. Flossie Dean of Chicago, Ill.

The bride's floor length gown was fashioned of white nylon marquisette with lace trimming the oval neckline. Her finger-tip veil was held by a lace cap and she carried white roses.

Mrs. William C. Stetler of Marietta, a sister of the bride, served as matron-of-honor wearing an aqua taffeta gown with matching gauntlets and a sweetheart bonnet. Her flowers were white daisies with ivy.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Kenneth C. Jones of Berkeley and Miss Doris Travis of Detroit wore similar gowns of dusty rose taffeta, short gauntlets and sweetheart-bonnets and carried white daisies with ivy.

FLOWER GIRLS, young Shirley Stetler of Marietta and Carol Ann Merz of Drayton Plains wore gowns of peach taffeta fashioned in the style of the bridal dress. They wore matching bonnets and carried basket flowers.

Keith Dean of Chicago, Ill., a brother of the bridegroom acted as best man. The ushers were William Dean and Richard Dean, both of Chicago.

Mrs. Jones wore an aquamarine crepe gown and white accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Dean was in a medium blue lace gown with white accessories.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Royal Oak Women's Club. The bride wore a pink dress with cocoa brown accessories as her going away outfit.

The couple will reside in Chicago upon returning from a wedding trip in Mexico.

Miss Van Winkle is Wed Saturday

mittee in charge of the affair are Mrs. C. W. Wacker, chairman; Mrs. Thomas C. Yarrall, Mrs. William R. Farrington, Mrs. Randolph Steier and Mrs. Dunham S. Gall, social chairman. Reservations should be made by July 18.

MODERN MANEUVERS

Modern may be aptly called "Furniture with a purpose." It has been designed with the function of each piece in mind, rather than the traditional appearance as is the case in most former period furniture. Naturally as our activities and modes of living change, so our requirements are different. Today we have many more properties—books, games, clothes, radios, televisions—and rooms are generally smaller. This undoubtedly inspired the design of Modern Unit furniture that is currently so popular.

These logical, simple, soundly constructed units can be had in open stack collections, and additional pieces may be added as desired. They offer the maximum flexibility. May be piled vertically or banked horizontally as room plan dictates.

The wide variety of finishes available range from light blond tones, through middle colors, to dark glossy and dull finishes. Lighter tones appear to be lighter as is the case in most former period furniture. Naturally as our activities and modes of living change, so our requirements are different. Today we have many more properties—books, games, clothes, radios, televisions—and rooms are generally smaller. This undoubtedly inspired the design of Modern Unit furniture that is currently so popular.

Come in, let us tell you about many more background ideas that will help bring out the beauty of Modern furniture.
