

Social Briefs

Miss Barbara Fry will be feted Friday evening at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. David Thomas. On Tuesday evening Miss Alice Chubbuck and Mrs. Richard Craig will be the hostesses at a personal and linen shower at the Orchard Lake club.

Mrs. Joseph Preece, who has been at Vero Beach, Fla., since December has returned to her home here. She was accompanied by her son, Dubie Preece who has been attending Rawlins college at Winter Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton F. Birmingham, 5544 Inlet road, will attend the Olivet college commencement exercises Sunday when their daughter, Jean Ellen, will receive her diploma. Miss Birmingham has majored in literature.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle R. Ferguson, 22 Harbour terrace, celebrated their third wedding anniversary Saturday. Weekend houseguests at their home included Mr. and Mrs. Eben D. Moon of Hillsdale and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pheatt of Toledo.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert E. Quarant, Jr., 1083 E. Maple, had as houseguests, last weekend Herman Stahler of Ann Arbor and his guest, the noted screen star, Donald Crisp of Hollywood, Calif.

Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Fox of Lake Park drive are planning to attend the graduation of their son, James Fox from Hope college next week. Mrs. Fox stated that at present James is planning to attend summer school sessions at Hope.

Prof. and Mrs. John R. Mez of Lugano, Switzerland, are houseguests of Mrs. Peggy DeSalle. Prof. Mez was formerly associated with the University of Oregon as professor of economics and has also taught at the University of Tucson.

Dr. Paul Wescher will give a gallery talk at the Little Galleries, 913 E. Maple at 8:30 this evening. He will discuss the "Growth of Modern Art."

WITH THE Collegians

Miss Patricia M. Rossman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durward Rossman of Larchlea drive, has completed her dental hygiene studies at the University of Michigan school of dentistry and will be graduated June 10. Vice-president of Jordan hall, she has been active in the Sailing and Wolverine clubs and a member of the board of representatives, a governing board established this year for UM co-eds under the new Michigan league constitution.

Mary Lu Brungraber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Brungraber, 652 Ann, will receive her bachelor of science degree from Wayne university next Monday. Miss Brungraber has majored in community recreation.

Four Birmingham young people will be among the more than 3,000 who receive degrees and diplomas from Northwestern university next Monday. They include Jan Cull, 755 Vinewood, bachelor of science; Charles R. Oelger, 359 Pilgrim, bachelor of science in business administration; Alexander Somerville, 1183 Henrietta, doctor of philosophy and Mary-Kay Smith, 1147 Buckingham, bachelor of science.

Barnum PTA Boards Map Year's Schedule

A joint meeting of the retiring and new executive boards of Barnum PTA was held at the school last Thursday evening. Final reports on the past year's activities were given and plans for the coming year outlined. The new president of the group is Mrs. Herriem Ketchum. Other officers are Mrs. C. V. Crickett, mother vice-president; William Mrs. Louise Howe, teacher vice-president; Mrs. Leo Giddings, secretary; Ralph Mapel, treasurer and Mrs. Doris Lange, historian.

ICY SHOULDER—What looks like rhinestones on a ransagee turns out to be Paris designer Christian Dior's latest fashion note on bare shoulders. The man who fathered the New Look a few seasons ago now recommends that the lady who wears a strapless evening creation also don a pendant necklace which allows sparkling rhinestones to cascade across her shoulders, back and throat.

Look Twice

Plain pink chambray is combined with dotted swiss chambray for this companion sun dress and bathing suit. The cowd draped neck and contrasting back skirt panel, shown in the dress, are also features of the bathing suit; while the narrow collar and fitted midriff of the suit are repeated in the dress.

Marion Tate Became Bride In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Marion Tate and Wilburn Glenn Hougl exchanged marriage vows in a candlelight ceremony at St. James Episcopal church Friday evening. The Rev. Harold E. Towne performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white mums, snapdragons, stock and gladioli.

Miss Tate is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tate of Bird street. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy J. Hougl of Westfield, N. J.

The bride chose a gown of white satin with a high Queen Anne neckline. Her bridal bouquet was a white fan of orchids, roses and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Patricia Tate, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Evelyn Bowler, Mrs. Shirley Golden and Miss Margaret Sauter, all of Detroit.

All wore identical gowns of white nylon organdy and carried white nosegays centered with American beauty roses. The flower girl, little Kathy Kelly, niece of the bride, wore a full length dress and matching bonnet. She scattered American beauty rose petals before the bridal procession.

Don Van Marter of Grosse Pointe was the groom's best man. The guests were seated by the groom's brother-in-law, Everett Roll, Gilbert Lear and Nelson Mead.

Mrs. Tate chose a gown of silver blue lace for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of white roses and gardenias. The groom's mother was gowned in soft rose and wore an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the bride's aunt, Miss Ethel Tate of St. Thomas,

Marion Tate Became Bride In Double Ring Ceremony

Ontario and Mrs. Gladys Barrett of Lansing. The couple left to spend three weeks in Arizona, after which they will make their home in Detroit.

Officers Installed by Holy Name PTA

The final meeting of the Holy Name PTA was held recently and new officers installed. Mrs. Frederick Cody is the president; Mrs. Bradley W. Stephenson, vice-president; Harry J. McGowan and E. J. Barnham, Father vice-presidents; Mrs. Edwin Koran, secretary; Mrs. John Anna, treasurer; Mrs. Otto Schubert, historian; Mrs. Arthur S. Greiner, program; Mrs. John Rosier, hospitality; Mrs. Robert Bodor, publicity; Mrs. Carson Birmingham, recreation.

It was voted to present $1,000 to the pastor to be used in the furnishing of the superior's office of the new building. Refreshments were served by the sixth grade mothers under the direction of Mrs. John Zink and Mrs. Anthony Spehar.

The Holy Name kindergarten tea was held last Thursday at the almshouse with an enrollment of over 50 youngsters. Mrs. Vincent Currier and Mrs. J. Stark Roll were co-hostesses, assisted by Mrs. James Lillis, Mrs. Bernard Lourin and Mrs. John Rosier.

Mrs. Frederick Cody the new PTA president and Mrs. B. W. Stephenson, vice-president, spoke. Mrs. Anyce Gillette, public nurse spoke to the parents and showed a film to demonstrate the children to be entertained in a separate room and were served refreshments.

Bassett-Erickson Rites Saturday at Baptist Church

BEVERLY HILLS—At a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening in the First Baptist church, Miss Florence Erickson became the bride of Allen Bassett. The Rev. Emil Kozta read the service before an altar decorated with white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Erickson of Berkshire, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white nylon marquisette fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline of illusion and edged with deep ruffles of marquisette.

The full skirt fell into a long train. The shallow ruffled headpiece held a finger-tip veil. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations and lilies of the valley, centered with a white rose corsage.

Miss Greta Erickson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of orchid. The bridesmaid, Misses Dorothy Rithka and Florence Bassett, sister of the groom, were both gowned in yellow. All carried colonial bouquets of purple and yellow daisies with yellow streamers.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bassett, was attended by Jack Cramer as best man. Ushers were his brother, Roland Bassett and William Gibbs.

Following the reception held in Berkley the couple left for the Upper Peninsula for a week. They will make their home at Loon Lake near Wixom.

CLUB NOTES

Kappa Alpha Theta The afternoon and evening groups of Kappa Alpha Theta will hold a joint meeting next Wednesday, June 14, at the home of Mrs. Melvin W. Cole, 540 Hawthorne, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Garden Club The Bloomfield Hills chapter of the Woman's farm and garden association will close their season's activities with a pot luck picnic next Monday. The affair will be held at the home of Mrs. George E. Baldwin, Old Orchard Trail, with luncheon served at noon.

Rummage Sale

The Pythian Sisters lodge will sponsor a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, June 10, in the American Legion home on South Woodward.

Now in Bloom — 600 VARIETIES of RARE IRIS Public Invited — Photographers Welcome Brookerest Iris Garden First Street East of John R Road off Auburn Avenue (M-69) Rochester, Michigan Olive 2-4208 R.F.D. Box 104

Local Girl to Wed in Berkley June 24

Miss Margaret Nordman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Nordman, 1315 Bird, has selected June 24 as the date of her marriage to Donald Noel Raster of Evansville, Ind.

The wedding will be performed at 9 o'clock in the Berkley Church of Christ by the bride's grandfather, James M. Irby of Noble, Ill.

Newcomers to Hear European Speaker

The Birmingham Newcomers club will hold their annual election of officers at the luncheon meeting scheduled for 12:30 next Thursday. Mrs. J. Donald Bowers is in charge of election arrangements.

Mrs. Joseph Lacy, program chairman has announced that she is competing arrangements to have a young man, one-time prisoner of Russia, as a special speaker.

Special Purchase SKIRTS and BLOUSES REGULAR TO $8.99 $2.99 $3.99 KAM 99 W MAPLE DAUM BIRMINGHAM

OPEN DAILY FROM 9:30 TO 6:00 FRIDAY NITE TIL 9:00