ADDING CHARM TO Your Home
By Bill Wieland

HEARTH INTEREST

No set of decorating rules will produce the perfect room for you. Perfection will depend upon your own sensitivity, your flair for color and style, your talent for introducing a note of unexpectedness, for transforming the usual into the unusual. It is the expression of these qualities inherent in you that will set your room apart from all others, stamp it as being distinctively yours.

The room sketched above shows how the imaginative use of inexpensive wallpaper transformed an ordinary fireplace wall into an area of extraordinary interest and contrast. Wallpaper simulating combed plywood in rich natural wood tone has been cut into one-foot squares and applied checker board fashion to an entire wall. Remaining walls of soft grey-blue and wall-to-wall floor covering in honey-beige deep-pile shag complete effective background for luxurious modern sofas and tables in blond wood. Tall lamps with blue ceramic bases topped by rich copper-brown drum shades further enhance the room's look of elegant originality. Lack of clutter gives room charm and a quiet, restful atmosphere . . . invites comfort and relaxation.

Come in and see us for new ideas and furnishings that will help you express YOU in your home decoration.
