Next Forum Speaker

FERD M. BROOCK
Ferd M. Broock, local real estate dealer, will address the Women's Finance Forum at their meeting next Wednesday in the Baldwin public library. His topic will be "Real Estate Investments and Home Ownership".

Broock attended Michigan and Leland Stanford universities and the Detroit College of Law. He has been in the real estate business for the past 31 years.

He is a former chairman of the broker's division of the Detroit real estate board and served on the appraisal's committee of the board for a number of years. He is also a member of the Birmingham real estate board and one of its past presidents.

The speaker yesterday was Sigurd R. Wendin, president of Heber-Fugler-Wendin, who spoke on "Common Stocks and Investment Trusts".

Well, drivers, it's up to you. The metropolitan Detroit area will soon be pretty well equipped with traffic safety posters showing a pedestrian hurrying out onto the street with no more concern than he exercises in going from room to room in his own home. The catch is this: While the poster is supposed to be a warning and reprimand to these careless walkers, the caption says to the drivers of the area: "You're entirely welcome!"

Opens Office Here

Herbert Bean, DSC, has opened a branch office at 295 Hunter boulevard. Dr. Bean, a graduate of the Ohio college of chiropractic, has practiced for seven years, one of which was in Cleveland before opening his Detroit office. He is a member of the Wayne county and Michigan chiropractors societies.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. The "early bird" usually gets the space.

Bits of Birmingham

Mrs. Charles Olin of Southfield road was the second local woman to report the welcome presence of robins. They appeared at her bird feeding station early last week. During the winter Mrs. Olin has been playing hostess to a pair of cardinals, a pair of blue jays and 10 pheasants which came regularly to eat at her "table".

This Wanderer was left gaping at a phone call shortly after noon Thursday. As soon as we identified ourselves, a small voice said, "My Mommy wants to say 'thank you'." This was followed by the click of the phone being hung up. Now if we knew whose Mommy it is who wants to say these lovely words, and why she wanted to say them, we could give her a hearty "You're entirely welcome!"

Coryell Transferred to Eastern Firm by Electrical Firm

Appointment of Ralph I. Coryell, Jr., to the Syracuse sales office of The Reliance electric and engineering company, electric motor manufacturers of Cleveland, Ohio, is announced today by George Bevis, district manager in this area. Coryell will serve as a field sales application engineer.

A graduate of Cornell university where he majored in mechanical engineering, Coryell recently completed an intensive training course on the operations of the sales, engineering, and manufacturing departments at the company's home office.

Coryell was born and grew up here, and served in the Navy during the war. He is a member of Pi Tau Sigma, honorary fraternity, and Phi Delta Theta, social fraternity.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Coryell, 20235 W. 13 Mile road.

City Postpones Action Regarding Sale of City Lots

There is no need for immediate action regarding the sale of five city lots on Dorchester, just west of Coolidge, the city commission decided Monday evening.

It postponed action concerning the sale until the future Coolidge right-of-way was ultimately determined.

Commissioners also denied a petition for the re-zoning of a number of E. Maple lots between Eton and Coolidge. Several property owners had requested the land be changed from multiple family and single family to a business classification.

New Pump for Lincoln Well
Purchase of a new pump for the city's Lincoln well has been approved by the commission. The low bid of $2,045 from the Layne-Bowler Co. of Memphis, Tenn., was accepted.

The old Lincoln pump will replace the old one in the Derby well.
