WALNUT LAKE NEWS

By HELEN GIDDINGS. Phones MAYFAIR 6-3267.

To Sew for ACS. A meeting to aid the work of the American Cancer Society was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Richard McKay, activities chairman for the Walnut Lake Women's club. Present were Mrs. Roland E. Watson, Mrs. C. E. Thomson, and Mrs. Harry Maves. They made plans for the Women's club to sponsor two groups to make cancer pads. Any woman in the community, whether a club member or not, is invited to join either group. The daytime group will meet weekly, starting Thursday, March 23 with Mrs. Harry Maves, 2200 Edgewood drive from 11 a.m. through the afternoon. Women finding evening hours more convenient will meet with Mrs. C. E. Thomson, 5491 Putnam. Their first meeting will be Tuesday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m. Donations of soft, white material or old, light colored clean cotton blankets are needed, and may be left at the above addresses or at the home of Mrs. McKay, 2454 Walnut Lake road. If not convenient to deliver them call and they will be picked up.

Garden Club. The garden club met at the home of Mrs. William Sinclair Thursday afternoon. This is the season for pruning evergreens and proper methods of doing this were discussed. Some of the members are starting seed flats for annuals.

Forms Patrol. Because of its size, the Girl Scout troop has been divided into two patrols. The meeting place has been changed from the local school to the home of Mrs. Edson Stevens and Mrs. Harry Maves. At present the girls are equipping individual sewing boxes as part of their sewing badge requirement.

Brownies. When the Brownies met last Tuesday with their leaders, Mrs. Perry Graber and Mrs. John Parkins, they had special guests, Frank C. Morton brought a visitor, Mrs. Agnes C. Jacobson, a native of Latvia. She was dressed in Latvian costume and sang the songs of her country in celebration of World Friendship month. Kay Graber was hostess for the day. Barbara Sinclair was elected scribe for the month of March.

Brief Notes. Mrs. R. C. Banker left Thursday to spend two weeks in Florida. She will visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Rhyne and her two grandchildren in Marianna.

Entertaining. Students of Mrs. Richard McKay's dancing class are planning to donate their talents to bring a little cheer to the members in homes for the aged. They may also visit hospitals or other institutions where such entertainments would be welcomed. Any young people of school age in the community who would like to join them in singing, dancing, music or reciting may call Mrs. McKay for full information.

Take a Bow, You Guys! Well, the men club make sale is history, but the aroma lingers on. Such pie! Such apple strudel! Such cookies, Bill Henshaw and Arthur Kane, clad becomingly in lumber-jackets and Otis Zahn, bustling worriedly about as men always do before a bake sale, arranging and re-arranging their wares. No matter where they placed them, they still looked too good to be true. At 1 p.m. the huge table was covered with luscious goodness—at 1:15 the table was bare, and amidst a popping of cash bulbs, Bill Bishop and his photographer Kenny Dameron made a permanent record of the affair which will probably appear between the covers of a monthly magazine published by a Detroit auto factory. Hot coffee and doughnuts were served to the customers by Dave Martin, Don Harrison and Bill Weisner.

Attend Style Show. Local women who attended the fashion show sponsored by the AAUW at Cranbrook last week were Mrs. Edson Stevens, Mrs. Harry Maves, Mrs. Parker Hinkle, well and Mrs. George McDonough. After the show tea was served in the dining hall at Christ Church.

Social Activities. Mrs. Donald G. Sellner left for Huntington, W. Va. Monday. She will spend three weeks with an old schoolmate, Mrs. Jane Hobson. Lawrence Teal of Putnam drive spent the weekend in Lansing attending the music festival. Mrs. Little cheer to the members in homes for the aged. They may also visit hospitals or other institutions where such entertainments would be welcomed. Any young people of school age in the community who would like to join them in singing, dancing, music or reciting may call Mrs. McKay for full information.

Clam Chowder. The Charles Edward Post No. 14, American Legion, will serve a fresh clam chowder supper at their meeting tomorrow night beginning at 6:30. The meeting will be held from 8 to 8:30, with dancing for members and their wives later in the evening.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh. Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts got in quite an argument the other day over at Fred's Garage taking about the best spot to fish up at Green Lake.

Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts got in quite an argument the other day over at Fred's Garage taking about the best spot to fish up at Green Lake. "Opposite the old sawmill is the best spot," says Handy. But Easy "pooch-pooch" him. "I've seen the biggest fish caught off Cedar Point!" says Easy. "I've been catching them there for years."

Then Fred goes into his office and brings out the biggest mounted rainbow trout you ever saw. "That that was caught at the sawmill," comments Handy. "Cedar Point."

It Sometimes Pays to Change Vocational Horses in Mid-stream, Local Man Finds

By Alice E. Moran. It's not uncommon to find a man or woman happily working in a field for which they were not educated. At times educational background and the profession are wholly unrelated, at others they do have a "common" ground.

Such is the case of Henry E. McCurry of 820 Puritan. McCurry is a graduate of the University of Michigan law school and later practiced law in Detroit. In one office a fellow-attorney had a sideline of insurance report work. McCurry's too-small wages continually brought this to mind as a means of increasing his income. One large insurance company refused him a position because they considered him too young.

He began sending letters to many firms, offering to act as an insurance investigator for them and was finally appointed as the Detroit inspector for the Mutual Life, Equitable Society and New York Life.

Stare Own Company. Out of this association grew his own company. He became anxious in his new field of work when he successfully proved an attempted fraud by an apparently successful business man, who with his wife, presented false statements to obtain $1,000,000 in life insurance from the American and Canadian companies.

McCurry followed the case until he proved that man would never have been able to obtain any insurance coverage had his applications been truthfully filed out. McCurry, who spent four years in the European theatre during the war, maintains his main office in Detroit with a branch office in Grand Rapids.

Henry McCurry, Jr., a veteran of four years in the Pacific area, is associated with his father's company as service representative. McCurry, Sr., is an honorary member of the International Chain association and holds membership in a number of other insurance organizations. He is also a member of the Detroit Athletic club and the Bloomfield Hills country club.

Committee Promises. More Colorful Event. Edward Barclay heads the committee making arrangements for the Pierce Club picnic to be held sometime in May. Others who will serve with him are Mrs. Dean Coffin, Mrs. A. Louis Schaefer, Robert Kerley and Donald Fick, at whose home the committee met. Plans for the 1950 picnic call for larger acts and a more colorful affair which will be completed with hawkeye selling peanuts, pop, popcorn and the extras which ex-come up a circus.

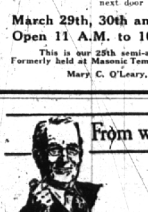

The circus band, under the direction of Joseph T. Madara, also will be larger this year. Members of the band are selected from among the fathers of boys in the pack.

Six Years Old

Carolyn Cox was six years old last Tuesday. Betty, Gay and Jimmy Hill of Royal Oak and Richard and Corrie Carlund and Bobby Young helped her eat cake and cream. Carolyn is the daughter of the Leo Cox of Drury Lane.

Toastmasters Club. Bill Wolf has been busy organizing a local chapter of the Toastmasters Club. The toastmasters are a group of men meeting weekly for dinner and mixing good-natured study of parliamentary procedure.

The club aims to perfect its members. The toastmasters are speaking. For the present they are in the Ascension Lutheran Church, 6155 Park Road, Pontiac, at 6:15 p.m. Thursdays.

Returns Home. Mrs. Robert H. Fitzgerald returned from a two-week stay in Mexico. She and Bob made several sight-seeing trips over the border into Mexico. They were joined by her son, Jim, who is in Las Cruces for an indefinite time and Paige must settle down to the life of an Army wife again.

Junior Big. Junior Big met Friday night at the school. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens joined Ed and Kim and the young folks in folk dancing and games. Sue Casey and Patty Nyberg made and served refreshments. They saw several sports movies and cartoons. The next meeting will be Mar. 31.

PTA Program. At the PTA meeting Monday night at the local school, Dr. Myron Noonan told parents one disturbing fact, that the children in dental health the survey was made in all Birmingham schools last fall. He stressed the fact that parents can do more to prevent tooth decay than the dentist, who can only repair the damage.

Brushing teeth later than half an hour after eating is not very effective as far as decay is concerned. He also advised parents to stay in the dentist's office. Most behavior problems could be avoided if parents would do this he stated.

Shelia Menoch, a sixth grade pupil at the local school, is a member of the school health council introduced by the speaker. The assembly voted to turn over $100 from the proceeds of the recent fair to the teaching staff for the purchase of library books.

Mrs. Perry Graber, Mrs. Walter Killing and Mrs. John Parkins were appointed to visit the school of needed kitchen equipment. George Osterbeck presented this club's candidates for the election of officers in April: president, Roger Pettit; vice-president, Don Benway; father vice-president, Edward Sintz; mother vice-president, Mrs. Richard Bennetts; secretary, Mrs. William H. Granger; treasurer, Mrs. Graham T. Overgard.

Edward Sintz reported on the past year's activities of the Club and a statement of the cost of the Club program. Don Harrison explained the organization of the Club program.

Mrs. F. L. Granger and Mrs. Elwood Sechist served refreshments after the meeting.

Clam Chowder. The Charles Edward Post No. 14, American Legion, will serve a fresh clam chowder supper at their meeting tomorrow night beginning at 6:30. The meeting will be held from 8 to 8:30, with dancing for members and their wives later in the evening.

Classified ad deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.
