Women Meet

Walnut Lake Women's club meets tonight at 8 o'clock in the Walnut Lake School. Ruth Thomas, Royal Oak, will speak on "The Preparation of Food for Use in Home Freezers."

Ho-Male Bake Sale

Women, look to your laurels! It is true! The Men's club is planning a bake sale for March 11, to be held at the Walnut Lake Grocery store. All goods will be made and baked by the men. Cakes "just like grandfather used to bake," will be among the culinary masterpieces. The news is being received with mixed feelings, mostly consternation and skepticism. Many a wife, hereabouts, has a pretty good idea what kind of a cake her husband can turn out. Members of the bake sale committee are Otis Zahra, William Bishop and Arthur J. Kane. Oh, yes, don't miss the monthly business meeting tomorrow night, March 3. Bring your cook books, boys.

Singers Gather

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Rockwell of Putnam drive were hosts to the "Worldwide Quartets of America" Saturday evening. While their name implies they do not take themselves too seriously, it is reported, some very good harmony is produced. About 20 active members gather monthly coming from far and near. Ivan Frye, talented member from St. Louis, Mo., rarely misses a meeting and was on hand for Saturday's session at the Rockwells.

Scout Board

Martin Wade, John Woodman, Conrad Givens, Walter Whitmer and Otis Zahra will serve on the executive board of the Boy Scouts this year.

Girl Scouts Aid

The Girl Scout troop is actively engaged in the promotion of World Friendship also. Each member of Mrs. Edson Stevens' and Mrs. Harry Maves' troop is donating an article to be put in the World Friendship bag. When filled, the bag will go, with their good will, to a needy girl in another land. Sheila Menoch and Lynn Granger will represent their troop at the international group meeting Friday afternoon at the Community House in Birmingham. Leslie Stevens and Karen Madden will represent the Brownies.

World Friendship

Mrs. Harlow F. Bates and Mrs. Winthrop Conrad, Brownie leaders, and 18 members from Franklin met with the Walnut Lake Brownies Tuesday afternoon at the local school. Since this is World Friendship month and little girls of nine or so have few contacts with the outside world, Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. Perry Graber, leaders, thought World Friendship might well begin near home. The Brownies greeted the boys with enthusiasm and decided to prepare a friendly treat for their guests. They baked cookies themselves. Mrs. Frank Sweet, Mrs. Donald Shank, Mrs. Robert Schauls and Mrs. King donating the use of their kitchens for the young cooks.

At the meeting Mrs. Lee Hanson spoke to the Brownies about Girl Scouts in other lands. She gave each Brownie and leader a World Friendship card and a token of World Friendship. Other guests from Franklin were Mrs. Dudley Campbell and Mrs. Dwight Emstgen.

At Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Graber spent the week in Chicago attending the convention of the Life Insurance company of Virginia.

Unhappy Ending

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Walters returned Saturday from a vacation to learn that the restaurant, the "Chuckie Snack Bar," at Telegraph and Maple roads, had been burglarized while they were away. Several other business places in the vicinity had been entered the same night. An undetermined amount of money was taken and several pieces of equipment smashed. Entry was made through one of the windows, which the intruder broke.

The Walters spent several days visiting Chuck's old many service station in Hutchinson, Kan. They stayed a few days in Hot Springs, Ark., and St. Louis, Mo. Bobby, 3-year-old son of the Walters, visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rausch at Battle Creek while his parents were away.

Key to the Answer

Mrs. John C. Palmer of Middlebelt road received one of those rare calls last Thursday when she picked up the phone and heard, "This is Dale McIntyre of Knowlton, Okla. I have a radio turned on, but she did not know that New York is called the "Empire State", so there's a new radio in the Palmer household now.

Birthday Dinner

Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodman, was seven years old Feb. 22. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Deitz and daughter, Frances and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodman and daughter, Stephanie, came from Detroit for the birthday dinner.

House Warming

A surprise house-warming was given the latter end of Saturday last. The Speichers, formerly of Sturgis, Mich., now live in the latter residence, 1613 Putnam drive. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Warner, Martha Speicher and Don Paige of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Melroy Speicher and family of Bonulus and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Speicher and their children. A pot-luck dinner was served and the Speichers were presented with a gift for their home.

Mrs. Martin Wade, Mrs. A. M. Heinmann, Mrs. William Sinclair, and Mrs. Roland Walton are assisting Mrs. Henry Jockila, chairman, on the local Red Cross drive. The Variety Girls met at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Young last Wednesday for cards and luncheon.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weeks of Lakeland drive and their guest John Korpele of Detroit report they have had fine skiing the last few days.

Purely Personal

A family gathering was held at the Jortis residence on Wellife recently when Mrs. Jortis' aunt, Sister Anne Charlotte of the order of Sisters of Charity visited her niece's family. She met the Jortis children, Dale and Mary Margaret. For the first time, Sister Anne Charlotte has returned to duties of Good Samaritan hospital, Dayton, Ohio.
