No Evening Meetings
Because of the fuel shortage, the board of education has canceled all night meetings usually held in the McKinley school. Glenn Schoenhaus, superintendent, offered an oil burner-heated school as a substitute to organization meetings. In most cases the offer was turned down because of road conditions throughout the township. Affected was the Washington village association and PTA. In addition, the Magnolia Woman's Club was authorized to cancel the March 6 meeting or accept a school heated with oil. Mrs. Fred Heiden, president of the club stated the distance was too great, considering the drifting snow made roads impassable.

Square Dance
Bond School PTA is sponsoring another square dance on Saturday, March 18, in West Bloomfield township hall, Eddie Dwyer's band will play from 9 until 1 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Clyde Graham has charge of tickets and PTA members. A refreshment sale netted the group $50.

Relieve Tension
The Men's club of the Community church will hold a dinner meeting Wednesday, March 1, at Fruit Ridge Inn. Jerry Vanok, divisional director of public relations for the Standard Oil company, will speak on "Relax, What's Your Hurry?" Reservations for 75 have been turned in to President Robert Gordon.

Going to Boys' State
The Main Street Star's club voted last week to send a boy to Wolverine Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion, from June 15 to June 23. Charles Runta is chairman, assisted by Roy White and Leslie Wilson. There were 25 members at the dinner meeting held in the Southfield Methodist church.

Road Appeals Made
In the interest of better roads, Dudley P. Frame, supervisor of Southfield township, has mailed out two sets of petition blanks to be filled and mailed to our state representative and Gov. Williams at Lansing.

Plan Busy Month
Seton Guild met Friday at the Sarah Fisher Home on west 12 Mile road. A heavy schedule was planned for March in the interest of underprivileged children there. Mrs. Clarence Chapman, president, named committee chairman and assistants for a March 17 dinner and bridge party at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McLaughlin of Vinsetta boulevard, Royal Oak. The president announced that membership had increased to 150 from Detroit, Royal Oak, Pontiac, Grosse Pointe and Lathrup village and attendance at the St. Patrick's party should be approximately 100 persons.

Have You Met . . .
Former Detroit, Miss Virginia Bower who is now residing at 1611 Graefhof?

Mrs. Paul Bowman, director of the home, announced a rummage sale March 4, at Oakdale Community church, Wyoming and Eight Mile roads. The site was chosen because of its accessibility to a federal housing unit. Children's clothing, a few children's beds and renovated bed pillows will be on sale, as well as clothing, all given by members. Proceeds will be used to help purchase muscle developing and strength building toys for the little folks at the home. Reservations were taken for the

St. Michael's Parish
Several units are being formed in the St. Michael's parish which meets Saturday evenings for the new church. Mrs. Floyd Gardner heads the committee which has been formed on Berg road. In Lathrup Mrs. George Rostow and Mrs. Edmund Jones have been named chairmen of two units. Several others will be formed in the near future. Mrs. Rostow and Mrs. Albert Flemming have been hostesses to interested groups which have been aiding the start of these units during the past two weeks.

Cub Scout News
Cub Pack B-14, worked hard to pick up and sell papers in a recent drive. The proceeds will finance a trip to the hockey game on March 19 at Olympia. It was anounced at the regular meeting held last week in the Annie Lathrup school. The meeting marked the fourth anniversary of the Cubs in this area. A huge white and gold cake, bearing the Scout insignia, was served after the meeting. A skit was presented by each Den, as directed by Den mothers. The skit depicted events in the lives of great men born in the month of February. The cubmaster is Charles Gorman.
