Baldwin Seniors Hear Engineers

By invitation of the Engineering society of Detroit, nine senior boys from Birmingham, along with Ross A. Wagner, principal, and Lawrence Goodrich, boy's editor, attended the 15th annual engineering and science vocational guidance meeting last Thursday at the Raskhan building, Detroit.

The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint prospective engineers with qualifications for the profession and to discuss the various fields of engineering.

The opening address was given by W. M. Borling, manager of the personnel division of General Electric company, Schenectady, N. Y., who spoke on opportunities in the engineering field.

After his address, 70 prominent engineers from 26 fields of engineering, gave counsel on the disadvantages and advantages of their fields.

Students attending from Birmingham were Dick Shillberg, Stewart Peck, Jim Buchanan, Larry Miller, Tom Good, Ward Abbott, Charles Burnham, George Weinhald and David Frayne.

More than 1,000 different post-graduate stamps honoring the Red Cross have been issued in countries throughout the world.

Sports Showup

By Bob Hardy

Port Huron, East Michigan league champion, was defeated in the state finals Saturday night by Kalamazoo Central, 64-50. But in being runner-up, the spate champs, the Big Red proved that the Eastern Michigan league is as strong as any in the state.

Dick Helgezon, Birmingham's most versatile swimmer and three letter man, was elected this year's tank captain. This season he swam in five events: the three free styles and the two relays. His ability and willingness to fill in spots has been a tremendous factor in the team's success.

One honorary, one manager's, and 19 swim letters were awarded to this year's squad by Coach J. Jay Myers at the banquet at Devon Gardens last Thursday night.

The Maple basketball team had a high degree of accuracy from the floor. Captain Howard Liverance led with 37.8, followed by Barry Wall second with 27.8, Tom Tracy had 27.7, and Art Fairbanks 27.6. The team's average was 29.2, on 226 attempts and 352 baskets.

Barry Wall's 240 points led the points-scoring department. Liverance's 214 and Tom Tracy's 212 followed.

Leading in free throws was Bob Hardy with 70.2, followed by Barry Wall's 66.7 and Tom Tracy's 64.1. The team's average was 41.7.

Instrumental Festival

The Southeastern band and orchestra festival will be held Saturday in the Ypsilanti auditorium. Judges are hand and orchestra directors from major colleges in Michigan. Musical organizations receiving first division or superior concert performance will be invited to play for the state festival.

School Musicians Win High Ratings at Recent Festival

By Pete Plumstead

The girls' ensemble and four soloists, selected from the Baldwin choir, participated in the district solo and ensemble festival at Pontiac high school last Saturday.

The girls' ensemble composed of Alysanne Dove, Ann Groves, Suzanne Mason, Ann Morrow, Vivian Murphy, Alma Jean Nordin and Sue Schott, received a rating of "excellent."

In the solo portion of the program Ann Groves sang "Were My Song with Wings Provided," by Reynolds Hahn, and "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal," by Roger Quilter. She received "excellent" ratings.

"Clarinda," by R. Orlando Morgan, and "My Lady Walks in Loveliness," by Ernest Charles were sung by Lynne McCracken for a rating of "good."

Ann Morrow and Ted Werner earned the only two "superior" ratings awarded to Birmingham singers.

Ann sang "Until," by Wilfred Sanders, and "A Birthday," R. Huntington Woodman. Ted sang "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride," by Geoffrey O'Hara, and "The Ringers," by Jeremiah Lohr. Jan Kindley accompanied the ensemble while Alysanne Dove accompanied the soloists and was rated "superior" for her work.

Local Girls Attend Basketball Playday

Georgia Roehn, Nancy Spudis, Jane Mallory, Dolly Susin, Nancy McCall, Mary Adams, Shirley Hopkins, Marianne Poole, Sally Cutler, Barb Hannaum, Pat Hall and Ann Awovill, from Birmingham, attended the basketball playday at Mt. Clemens Saturday. The teams are mixed to include members from each school to avoid school rivalry.

The schools represented were Birmingham, Mt. Clemens, Hazel Park, East Detroit and Port Huron.

Speech Contests Begun at Baldwin; District Meet Here

The two final speech contests, to determine Baldwin winners in oration and dramatic reading, were held last week.

Under the supervision of forensic director, Charles Thumser, the contest contains four divisions of speaking orations, declamation, dramatic reading, and extemporaneous speaking.

Two speakers may qualify to represent the school in each group. Winners of the school contest then enter the district, followed by the regionals and so on until the state finals.

In oratory Margaret Elliott placed first with "Thou Shalt Not Fear." Jim Milford took second with his "Democracy or Hypocrisy?" Marion Hess, speaking on conservation, placed third.

Dramatic Reading Winners: Judges for the contest were J. Jay Myers, Charles Thumser and Miss Janet Bainbridge.

In the dramatic reading contest, Jim Milford took first place with Edgar Allan Poe's "The Tell-Tale Heart." Millie McIntyre second with her reading of "Yellow." June Seymour third with excerpt from "I Remember Mama." Carlyle Hess was fourth with "Sentiment."
