

Players Getting Ready for Opening Performance Tomorrow

Garden Clubs Will Hear Mrs. Cole on Floral Color Magic

International Day was emphasized for members of the Birmingham Garden Club in the talk given by Mrs. Walter Fenton on "Country Women of the World" recently.

Mrs. Fenton told of her attendance at the triennial conference at Amsterdam, Holland, where there were five-hundred delegates from all parts of the world. The aims of the organization of Associated Country Women of the World are to further friendship by emphasizing common interests and to better food production, distribution and consumption in all countries.

This phase of National Garden Clubs' work is supported by "pen-pals for friendship" collections.

Mrs. M. Cochrane Cole of Bronxville, N. Y., will give a talk and demonstration on "Floral Color Magic" at the next meeting on April 10. Mrs. Cole is being sponsored by the Pontiac, Bloomfield and Birmingham branches of the National Farm and Garden Association.

The meeting will be held in the Kingwood School auditorium and the Bloomfield branch will be the hostess club. A member of the faculty of the Judging School for many years, Mrs. Cole is nationally known for her work in the flower arrangement field.

Mrs. A. H. Knorr of Bedford road will entertain the members of the board of directors of the Birmingham group at luncheon on March 27. Co-hostess is Mrs. Lloyd Liston.

The Village Players are putting the finishing touches to their next production "Two Blind Mice" which opens tomorrow, March 24, and runs again on the 25th and 31st and on April 1.

Adams Square Dance Is Set for Saturday

"Bring your partners and promenade home" will be heard throughout the Adams school gymnasium this Saturday evening when the Adams PTA holds another of its regular square dances. That's March 25 beginning at 9:00 p.m. with an instruction period between 8:30 and 9:00 for beginners.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer are chairman of the affair and are being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barry and Mr. and Mrs. Al Parrish.

As in the past the Brennans will be calling for the evening.

Society club news must be submitted by noon each Monday.
