'Why Did I Contribute to The Roll Call?' Residents Anxious to Give Reasons

Most residents of the Birmingham area give annually to the Community House Roll Call campaign. Their reasons for doing so are not only interesting but also sound and specific. The following contributors, from all sections of the city, through their comments perhaps will give a clear picture of the true purpose of the Community House and of the many services it renders.

Mrs. George A. Weisbold, 451 Piquette: "The Community House was one of our very first contacts for getting acquainted when we came to Birmingham. The adult education classes are of great interest to me and we enjoy the family dinners every Thursday evening. I have used the employment agency at the Community House and was very satisfied and after a recent automobile accident I used one of the hospital beds available in the House's sick room supply cupboard."

Neil C. McMash, Lone Pine Road: "I gave to the Roll Call because I firmly believe that the Community House is a necessary community project."

Mrs. Paul Hoffman, 1045 Surfside: "As a former Community House Board member, I know that the Community House goes along with the needs of the entire community. And as the city grows the House's sick room keeps abreast of all of its needs—in other words, the Community House never stands still but ever is going forward."

Ray O. West, 631 Hampshire: "I gave to the Roll Call drive because my son, Stanley, who just finished high school, spends a great deal of his leisure time in the Ranch Room at the Community House."

Mrs. Charles J. Shain, 413 Pierce: "With my past service as president of the Community House Board of Directors from 1923 to 1950 and honorary president of the Board for life, I feel that our Community House is the most cohesive neighborhood force we have in the city. Few communities indeed, have any such contributing value to friendly and social sentiment."

Mrs. Ferd M. Brock, 12 Lone Pine Court: "I have belonged to many organizations that use the Community House and I know what good work the House does in the fields of youth recreation and education and in social services. Everyone should have pride in an organization of the type and caliber of the Community House."

Mrs. Norman Lyle, 2675 E. Maple: "The idea of the Community House is so wonderful that each year I have an increasing awareness of its value to the community, hence a great willingness to support it. As a member of the Birmingham Welcoming Service, one of the first things we mention to our newcomers is the Community House and its many varied services to the community."

Mrs. George V. Finch, 1280 Latham, Beverly Hills: "This organization is the best example of a Community House that I have ever seen. It's a place where we can meet our friends easily because of its central location. The work it does for the youth of Birmingham is outstanding."
