

The Birmingham Eccentric

To do something for another, knowing that it will not be recorded in the neighborhood as a good deed, reaps greater reward than he who expects wide praise for his charity. God requires no advertising to tell Him our good deeds.

Mutual Problems To Be Discussed at Special Meeting

Birmingham city plan commissioners have agreed to meet with members of the planning commission of Bloomfield Hills to discuss mutual problems and exchange information about future plans of the two groups.

Booth, chairman, to the Birmingham commission.

A special meeting for this purpose is to be arranged, at which time a regular and continuing exchange of data between the two organizations is to be discussed.

Housing Chief Ignores People's Will, Says B'ham Real Estate Board Head

The Housing Expediter, in pushing his campaign to extend federal rent control beyond June 30, is ignoring the manifest will of the people that they no longer want to be directed from Washington.

Kinney pointed out that the continuous stream of committees which are freeing themselves from rent restrictions by action of their governing bodies is dramatic evidence of their attitude.

One of the most recent actions of note was the overwhelming vote of the Virginia legislature to release that state, he added. That raised to seven the number of states which no longer have federal rent control.

Just as convincing are the moves of city councils throughout the country which have voted to free their communities, he added.

Wherever rents have been decontrolled there has been, on the part of city officials, property owners, and the public, a sigh of relief.

Greyhound Honors Drivers for Safe Driving Records

Four Birmingham men, drivers for Greyhound suburban lines, will be among 613 operators honored in April for having driven

Throughout 1949 without an accident. These men, however, have an even greater record than that.

These men, however, have an even greater record than that. Their total years of accident-free service are 86.

Gerard Eller, 1332 Davis, and Harry Phillips, 1423 Bird, have each driven for the company for 22 years without a mishap.

Arnell Dewey, 844 Hazel and Larry G. Sheets, 1411 Bannaville, have both clocked 21 perfect years.

Dewey, oldest of the four in point of service, joined the company on Feb. 1, 1928, while Eller became a driver on Feb. 13, 1928.

Phillips became associated with Greyhound on Nov. 13, 1927, and Sheets on Dec. 8, 1927.

The honored drivers will be feted at banquets which are to be held in the various state areas including Detroit, Bay City, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Dayton, Ohio and Indianapolis, Ind.

SAE Members Will Note Founder's Day at Dinner Tonight

Local alumni of Sigma Alpha Epsilon will hear Dr. Robert E. Arner, national supreme deputy archon, in a special Founder's Day dinner this evening at the Bayview Yacht club.

Dr. Arner, second in command of the fraternity, will come to Detroit from Carmel, Calif., for the celebration of the 94th anniversary of the founding of the group.

He is a member of the board of directors of the SAE corporation and of the board of trustees for the Revere Memorial foundation, both in Evanston, Ill.

John Long, 1458 Stanley, is president of the Detroit alumni chapter which sponsors the Founder's day dinner in this area each year.

Correction

In identifying the winners in a picture race at the Ice Carnival, The Eccentric mistakenly said Ann Freeman and Madonna Springer were the victors. The girls in the picture were Sue Savage and Clara Nador. However, Ann and Madonna, of whom no picture was taken, did win the girls' 440-yard skating event that day.
