

Stark-Rutledge Vows Exchanged

Miss Mary Alice Rutledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence V. Rutledge of Moreland avenue, became the bride of Neil Murray Stark Saturday afternoon in the Kirk in the Hills Church with the Rev. Leslie A. Bechtel officiating. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Stark of Ridgedale avenue.

For her marriage the bride wore a candlelight-satin fashioned with a Peter Pan collar which was encrusted with seed pearls. A Dutch cap hid her finger-tip veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of gardenias and ivy.

Heather Faile was chosen for the ensembles worn by Joy Stark, maid of honor; and Mrs. Richard W. Heymann and Rhoda Henshilwood, who were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were styled with fitted jackets buttoned to the waist and mandarin collars. They too wore Dutch styled caps and carried bouquets of purple iris and ivy in cascades.

Harry S. Stark, Jr., served his brother as best man and seating the guests were John W. White, Andrew Hinshaw and Lloyd D. Fay. Mrs. Rutledge greeted the guests at the reception which followed at Rotunda Inn in a French lilac crepe upon which she pinned an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a corsage of violets to blend with her dusty rose crepe dress.

For traveling to New York, the new Mrs. Stark selected a red and beige check suit topped by a beige coat. Upon their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

Fashion Show is Planned for Next Tuesday, March 14

The public is invited to attend the spring fashion show being sponsored by the Ladies' Aid of the Troy Presbyterian Church in the church on Tuesday, March 14 at 8:00 p.m.
