

Marionette Group Plans Performances on March 11 and 15

"Boeheim Solves the Circus Mystery", an original new marionette show written by localite, Mrs. Calvin Demmon and produced by the Birmingham Puppeteers of AAUW, will be presented in two performances at the Baldwin Public Library auditorium.

The first performance will be Saturday, March 11 at 10:30 p.m. for the Children's Story Hour class and the second show will be Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. for the Children's Theatre Group and members of AAUW and their children.

The play will include ten-string marionette characters all of whom were designed and made by members of the group. "Boeheim" outdoes the "Fat Man" and the "Falcon" in solving the mystery with the aid of a clown whose nose lights up, a tight rope walker and a lion.

The production is under the direction of Mrs. Roddy Craighhead and the manipulators or "poppers" behind the scenes will be Mrs. Charles Bizelew, Mrs. Robert von Mair, Mrs. John Siddall, Mrs. Donald Howard and Mrs. Calvin Demmon.
