

Altar Society's Annual Breakfast to be on May 17

Following a nine o'clock mass for women of the parish on May 17, the Holy Name Altar Society will gather at 10:00 a.m. at Devon Gables for its annual May breakfast. Arrangements have been completed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur V. LaFave.

Mrs. W. J. Reilly is in charge of floral arrangements and Mrs. James Kelly, finance. The ticket committee is composed of Miss Helen Simpson and Mrs. William Collins, Mrs. Paul Rebe and Mrs. C. J. Hiller.

Honorees will be Mrs. J. C. Cuchi, Mrs. Glen Hicks and Mrs. Bradley W. Stephenson while Mrs. Thomas B. Doe has been asked to serve as mistress of ceremonies.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Lulu E. Bachman, practicing attorney in Detroit for twenty years. She is a member of the Michigan Bar, the American Bar Association, the International Lawyers Association and is past president of the National Association of Women Lawyers of the United States.

Mrs. Bachman's affiliations also include her chairmanship of the International Relations section of the Federation of Women's Club, membership on the board of supervisors of Wayne County.

She organized and was for three years chairman of the United States War Relocation Authority in Detroit and Windsor. Mrs. Bachman attended organizational meetings of the United Nations and has been since its inception, an accredited observer to the United Nations, attending sessions monthly.

When she speaks to the Altar Society, she will have just returned from a session of the Human Rights commission at U. N. headquarters, Lake Success and a conference on International Relations of the State Department in Washington.

Plan Square Dance

The public is invited to attend a square dance tomorrow evening (May 22) at 8:00 o'clock which is being given by St. Catherine's Guild of St. James Church in the church parlors. Irwin White will call for the dancers.
