Undefeated Maples Entering Regional Net Games Tomorrow

By Bill Wilkinson
The Birmingham tennis team remained undefeated in league competition this season by defeating Mt. Clemens 4-1 last Thursday.
The Maples enter the regional tomorrow to defend their title won at Fordham last year.
Phil Savage defeated Tom Johnson 6-2, 6-0 to continue his winning streak.

BILL WILKINSON did not go late in the match by defeat Jack Albin 4-6, 6-2, 8-6, his very long match. Wilkinson's drop shot defeated the margin of sixties. Woody Dure had to forfeit to Dave Ward after losing the first set 6-7. The match was called off because of darkness.

GEORGE BOSWORTH and Roger Bechtel defeated Sam Gibson and Richard Mayer 7-5, 6-1. Pete Thers and Don Eddy, 2 won over Al Dohane and Ed Selwage 6-2, 8-6.

Birmingham Track Squad Cops Victory Over Mt. Clemens

By Joel Ross
The Maple trackmen journeyed to Mt. Clemens last Thursday to edge out a 55-54 victory over the winners. The local team scored first places but due to lack of force were hard pressed.
Mt. Clemens was the only rival to beat for first in the high jump. Joel Ross was the only finalist in the 100 yard dash.
FOR THE first time in many seasons the Mt. Clemens men showed a well balanced team and will be contenders for the league title.
With the season well under way the Maples have won two meets and lost one.
Saturday they defend their regional title at Perkahon. They must qualify then to enter the State meet at the Michigan State college track on May 27.

Crane Tennis Team Takes Three Wins; Track Squad Loses

Cranbrook's tennis team defeated Nichols school 4-1 at Buffalo on Saturday. The third match was the only Nichols victory. In other matches last week, the team beat Birmingham Tuesday 3-2 and Rochester 6-0.
The Cranbrook track team lost to Walled Lake high school Friday 6.5 to 4.5 in a meet at Cranbrook.
The junior varsity baseball team beat Big Beaver 6-4 Wednesday and Friday, lost to Hazel Park, 7-9. The freshmen baseballers won over Berkley 10-1 and the freshman track team won from Berkley Wednesday, 49 to 32 1/2.
In a game with Holy Name school Wednesday, the Cranbrook lower school baseball team lost 5-1 and on Saturday it defeated the Lake Forest high school 7-2 in an extra inning game.

Bloomfield Village School News

Kindergarten news: Last week the children worked on a "picture of spring." After talking over the activities in the evening, pictures were drawn on the backboard of beds, flowers, trees and children playing.

The kindergarten "community" had a "Mother's Day" where they helped mothers and fathers. The children learned about shapes and the importance of the neighborhood.
Judy Peterson drew a picture showing a little girl with her mother, crossing safely with the green light and a careful driver waiting for her.

First and second grade news: Many of the children went to the circus at the Metropolitan Country and its White horse Toppo. Hopalong 1949 the children that his mother is 10 years old and has been in 61 movies.
First and second graders made a movie "If you Health".

Third and fourth grade news: Objects in the third and fourth grade room are Jeff Crawford, president and Henry Bartholomeo, vice-president.
The class has seen science movies of frogs and fish. Through the microscope which Don Anderson brought to school, they examined fish, leaves and pond water. The class also has a few pollywoogs which they hope to see grow to frogs.
Among the children who went to the circus are Holly Simons, Peter Beardsley, Bill Cartwright, Laura Stevenson, Jane Wilson, Howard Flint and Susy Sawyer.

Fifth and sixth grade news: The movie "The House By" and "If You Health" were shown. The two-winner contest was judged through a fourth grade and the children learned how great a term carrier the common house fly is.
After the movie, a health committee was formed with children from the different grades. Bobby Scott represented the first grade; Helen Canning, third grade; Bill Cartwright, fourth grade; Anne Wilson, fifth grade and by Gordon Desinger and Donald Couch, sixth grade.
