QUALITY DOES NOT COST—IT PAYS

The film tells the story of what Girl Scouting can mean to a youngster from the time she makes her Brownie Promise and knows that she "belongs" to the time when she is a Senior Scout.

This featurette is a true interpretation of the Girl Scout movement and its aims. There are no professional actors or actresses in the movie—all parts are played by Scouts themselves.

Mrs. Cassius Miller, president of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council, commenting on this Warner Brothers production, says: "The picture is enormously successful in presenting the spirit of fun, youth and comradeship that is so much a part of Girl Scouting and, at the same time, so difficult to tell about in words."

"It shows Scouting in action and everyone who sees it will understand why our membership nationally is nearly at the million and a half mark and our waiting lists so long that we are constantly trying to recruit more women to serve as leaders and advisors. I hope that the film will make many women realize that there is a real opportunity for service in the Girl Scout movement."

Many troops are planning theatre parties to view this picture which will run from Wednesday the 31st through Tuesday, June 6, with two showings each evening at 7:05 and 9:25 p.m. as well as the regular Saturday matinee and the special cooking school matinee May 31.
