

List LWV Delegates for Council Meeting

by Helen Giddings
WALNUT LAKE — The Inter-Lake League of Women Voters is sending Mrs. Arthur Morvey and Mrs. Robert Willingham as delegates to the council meeting today and Friday.
 A budget for the coming year will be adopted and the league's two-year agenda discussed. A report by Mrs. Joseph Howell of Detroit on amending the constitution to provide periodic reapportionment of the state legislature will be made.
 Mrs. James Dunne of Walled Lake will speak on tax reforms and Mrs. Rosemary Scott, Grand Rapids will report on her study of governmental services for dependent children.
 Local delegates will report information about candidates and issues before election; forums conducted for improvement of public schools and surveys and forums for the improvement of Oakland county government.
 Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.

Announce Marriage

Joseph Blumel of Putnam drive has announced the marriage of his daughter Betty, to Louis Israelian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kay Israelian of Ferndale. The wedding ceremony will be at an afternoon ceremony performed before the immediate families. The young couple will spend the summer at the Blumel home at the lake.

Take a Bow, Men

Men's club went waiters to serve the Women's club mother-daughter banquet. The men took over as soon as the cooks left while the mothers listened to Yolande Foley's songs.

Garden Tour

Several members of the Garden club met for lunch with Mrs. Tom Snyder Thursday afternoon before leaving on a tour of gardens in the Bloomfield Hills area. The last stop was at the home of Mrs. Arthur Kane of Lakeview where a birthday cake awaited Mrs. Perry Graber. Others attending were Mrs. Otis Zahn, Mrs. R. C. Banker and Mrs. Henry Joka.

Girl Scouts and Dads

The banquet for Girl Scouts and their fathers was repeated this year by popular request. Saturday evening they dined at the community house in Birmingham with square dancing and group singing later. Those squired by their fathers, were Sharon McKay, Ann Fitzgerald, Pat MacLennan, Carol Negri, Norma Sinclair, Carolyn Kihling, Elaine Palmer, Karen Weaver, Lynn Granger and Sally Hanson.

School Activities

Local students at Barnum junior high school who took part in the musical program presented for the PTA Thursday night were Beverly Stradinger, Pat Peluso, Sandra Overgard, Valerie Benway, Sue Sloat, Fred King and David Goodwin.

 At the annual spring concert at Baldwin high school Tuesday evening Joan Carey, Barbara Stradinger, Bill Crowell and Dick Crowell sang with the choir.

Mothers Attend

Tuesday afternoon the mothers of the local school were invited to the spring "Festival of Song". The program included American minstrel, Dutch, Spanish and Czech folk songs. The first graders impersonated Indians and the kindergarten children were birds, bees and butterflies and other creatures not identified.

Hay Ride

The Junior Big went on a hay ride Friday evening. Mrs. Ruslander and Ed Kirbert, educational director, accompanied the fifth, sixth and seventh graders.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Phelps of Poplar Lane announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Randolph May 19, at Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Birthday Event

Susan Parkins, daughter of the John Parkins of Edgewood, entertained 20 of her friends at a birthday party Saturday afternoon. Susan was seven years old.

Brownies Advance

Seven Brownies became Girl Scouts Tuesday afternoon at a simple ceremony to which the local scout troop took part. Barbara Shank, Pamela Parkins, Penny King, Barbara Sinclair, Judy Sundstrom, Leslie Stevens and Rosiland Latham were the girls advanced.
 Their mothers were guests and Mrs. Richard King, troop committee chairman assisted Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. Perry Graber.

Leaders Train

A training course for Brownie leaders of the Birmingham council area was held at the Carey farm on Middle Road Tuesday.

 The farm will be used this summer for the annual play days.
 Mrs. Harry Williams will direct activities for Brownies and intermediate Girl Scouts.

Open House

Mrs. Thomas Sprague of Walnut Lake was hostess for the open house for members of her dramatic group of the "Gay Nineties Reborn" at her home Tuesday evening. The occasion marked Mrs. Sprague's birthday.

Surprised!

Impromptu birthday parties have been frequent on the south side of the lake this week. Mrs. William Sinclair and Mrs. John K. Woodman were surprised and feted by their neighbors.

Honeymooners

Guests of the Clifford Williams of Edgewood this week are their nephew and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams of Northbridge, Mass. The young couple was honored at a family gathering Sunday at the home of Mrs. Richard H. Williams and his brother Sam and family were present.

To Build Here

Guests of the Harry Bosards Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James O. Davis of Detroit. The Davises, frequent visitors to the lake, will soon start building a new home on Putnam drive.
 Their daughters, Gloria Jane and Ann Marie, were married May 11 at a double ceremony in Detroit. The date also marked the 23rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

A Triple Celebration

A family party at the John K. Woodman home on Poplar lane Sunday celebrated three birthdays. They annually observe Mrs. Woodman's birthday and those of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold R. Speed and her brother-in-law, C. L. Leaching of Durand at a joint party.
 Friday evening the Woodman's entertained at a small dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Murrice C. Betts of Detroit.

Improvement Program

Walnut Lake Estates, at a special meeting Sunday afternoon, accepted the recommendations of the improvement committee for a
