Sports Showup

By Bob Hardy

Three regional championships were "all in the day's work" last Saturday when Maple Grove track and field team swept the regional crown in these three sports.

Joe Ross, 100 yard dash state B champion, came through with the best performance of his career when he broke the tape at Ferriday Saturday in 10.2, tying the school record set by Don Donaldson in 1933 and Jack Steelman in 1942.

Two Eastern Michigan league schools, Ferriday and Port Huron, took first and second place respectively in the class A regional, giving a boost to the league meet may shape up next Wednesday.

Bob Littleton, former Maple athlete now a freshman at the University of Michigan, played a few minutes on the Varsity team against the Blues in the game ending spring football practice at the U of M stadium last Saturday.

Keglers' Korner

By Jim Milford

After a short absence, we are writing our Keglers' Korner. In it we will give a recapitulation of the bowling year.

Climaxing a tight race for three fourths of the season, John Griggs' Harold Turner team showed its superiority in the final quarter and won first place by a large margin in the Birmingham Senior House League.

Ronnie Reitharth, anchorman the champion squad, won solo honors in both single game and series with counts of 289 and 746. Joe Paulus gained high average with 206.

George York's Cheer Shop team, unusual because the average age of its members is 18, won the coveted title in the Junior House League.

The squad was in last place for the first quarter of the year but gradually broke challenging the leaders in January.

The Cheer Shop also had high series with 249 and high average high team game with 1046. Jim Milford, a member of the Cheer shop, won high series with 267.

Carl Forsman shot 265 to claim high singles honors. John Nickell, Cheer Shop anchorman, won high average with 187.

In the Birmingham Merchants' League, Carl Miller's Peck's clothing team emerged victorious in a battle down to the wire.

Bonnie Davis' Clobet McCutcheon combo won the Ladies Alibi League while the victor of the Ladies' Senior House League was Louella Koehm's Peabody quintet. Louella Koehm with a 649 took high series.

When tournament time came around, Birmingham people did well for themselves.

The final results of the Birmingham ladies' tournament showed Mickey Tibby's Maxwell squad on top with 2454.

A mother-and-daughter combination walked off with the doubles title. Louella and Georgia Roshum shot 1079 to coin. Georgia, a junior in Birmingham high school,AVIS Wooster's 591 took series honors.

In the women's state championship tournament at Flint, Florence Milford and Mildred Detweiler are second in the doubles. Mrs. Milford is in fifth place in the events. Iris Bevan's National Bank team is in sixth place in the team event.

In the Michigan state junior championship, Jim Milford emerged victorious as class B champion, shooting 1253 for six games. Ron Israel placed fifth in the class B field with 1195.

Graduation Affairs at Bloomfield Hills Begin Next Sunday

EDWARD DYKSTRA is the senior faculty sponsor. Class members are Tom Alexander, Anthony Angelosanto, Joan Baldwin, Jo Anne Bingley, Don Bohls, Mary Bower, Helen Bradley, Alger Burnham, Joby Cooper, Ronald Elles and Roy Hawkison.

Bloomfield Village School News

Kindergarten: The children's gardens are growing beautifully. Kathie Eynon planted seeds in a glass jar. The class finds her garden most interesting as they can watch the roots spread out into the soil and the plants growing. Leaves are coming on and next will be blossoms.

By cutting and pasting, individual pictures of spring flowers were made by the children. Special mention goes to Charles Johnson, George Seyferth and Judy Barholow.

Rita Bie's Cousin's mother and brother Johnnie visited the kindergarten's room.

First and second grade: Ann Barneil's grandmother is visiting at her home. George and Frederica Harris celebrated their eight birthday last Sunday.

The second graders are making a movie of the story, "The Man Who Kept Hens."

Helpers this week are: library, Sharon Kelly; Play corner, Jacqueline Nolas; dust, Judy Hoyer; water plants, Bonnie Cartwright; pencil sharpener, Larry Crawford; sharing picture, Marilyn Miteals.

Third and fourth grade: Officers the past week were Henry Barthelemy, president and Charles Haddock, vice-president. The Brownies visited the R. G. Cudini home on Luther Road and while there, hiked through the woods. The class heard a talk on the United Nations, and were shown pictures of how it operates.

Peter Beardsley celebrated his ninth birthday last Friday.

Fifth and sixth grade news: the sixth graders recorded a radio program which was given at school. It was a story of a family on a vacation to a newly discovered planet.

The Navy Bureau of Aeronautics has revealed the development of a jet-propelled aircraft capable of creating a fog screen which could effectively screen an entire fleet within 30 seconds and which will persist for more than an hour.
