

Sugar maple has approximately 1600 uses, and practically dominates the market for many special uses. Yellow birch in comparison has but 800 uses.

Sugar maple is unique among strength, and smoothness, and woods because in it are combined satisfactory finishing qualities, a pleasing appearance, high and two-thirds of the nation's supply uniform resistance to wear, comes from the Lake States.

May Not Increase

Fire insurance rates in this community may not be raised as anticipated if the local fire-fighters carry out their program sponsored by the Men's club. This is the only organized group cooperating with West Bloomfield township fire department at present.

At a special meeting Tuesday evening, the organizing committee turned over the operation of the local squad to area representatives, under the direction of Ray C. Fletcher of area 1. Fletcher has had 25 years experience with the Detroit fire department and retired from last June.

Clayton LaMotte and Ernest Jacobson are representatives from areas 2 and 3 respectively.

James Mellichamp, Cub master, made a number of awards. Billy Goddard, graduating to Scout ranks, won Washes badge; Billy Bishop, the Wolf badge; Howard Benway, gold arrow; gold stars to Donald Zimmerman, Tommy Harrison, Ralph Fleig, Jon Overgard, James Mellichamp, Peter Den, Charles Santand and Billy Goddard.

Busy Cub Scouts

The past week has been a busy one for Cubs of Pack 41. A monthly pack meeting was held at the local school Apr. 24.

James Mellichamp, Cub master, made a number of awards. Billy Goddard, graduating to Scout ranks, won Washes badge; Billy Bishop, the Wolf badge; Howard Benway, gold arrow; gold stars to Donald Zimmerman, Tommy Harrison, Ralph Fleig, Jon Overgard, James Mellichamp, Peter Den, Charles Santand and Billy Goddard.

Movies were shown by Henry Wildeman.

Dens 2 and 3 met jointly at the Whims' residence with Mrs. Richard Bennette and Mrs. Don Benway Tuesday. Mrs. Sintz's den enjoyed stories and con-popping after finishing their work on the scrap books for hospital patients at their last meeting. The Dens planned a marshmallow roast at the beach for this week, weather permitting. Members of den 1 will be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Harrison took a group of Cub Scouts to Oxford Friday evening. The Oxford Pack has just been formed and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison lent their assistance to the new Pack by giving demonstrations of model Pack and Den meetings.

A quartette, composed of four local Cub-mothers, Mrs. Graham T. Overgard, Mrs. Reginald Smith, Mrs. Herman Fleig and Mrs. Don Harrison, entertained.

Prepare to Advance Brownies of Troop 7, have been divided into two groups so that the older Brownies may be prepared for Fly-up ceremonies in the near future. They are working with Mrs. John Parkins and the younger Brownies are working with Mrs. Perry Graber. Mrs. Richard King has been assisting the leaders when needed. Jill Morton was hostess and Rosiland Latham and Penny King conducted flag ceremonies at last week's meeting.
