Miss Katharine Kidner is Wed to Harry Wise, Jr.

Miss Katharine Clinton Kidner wore her mother's ivory satin gown for her marriage Saturday afternoon in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, to Harry Dayton Wise, Jr.

The Rev. Dr. J. Clemons Kolb and the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated.

Princess lace completed the deep décolletage of the bride's gown which was fashioned with a two-tiered bustle. The skirt swept into a cathedral length train which was lined in shirred chiffon. Her veil was of full length silk illusion edged with the same princess lace that was used in her Juliet cap and she carried stephanotis, white spray orchids and ivy.

Matron of honor, Mrs. C. Henry Haberkorn III, of Grosse Pointe Farms and Mrs. Robert Benchley, Jr., who is from New Canaan, Conn., as bridesmaid, were in identical gowns of aquamarine marquisette over taffeta with turned-down Peter Pan collars and bands of corseted marquisette detailing the skirts.

Calota of the same marquisette with ivy and pink carnations gaudied across the back formed their headresses. Mrs. Haberkorn's flowers were pink carnations and ivy and Mrs. Benchley had an arrangement of the same blooms interspersed with white daisies.

Young Susan Haberkorn was flower girl in pink dotted swiss with an apron-effect of matching lace on the skirt. Her Juliet cap of matching material had a cluster of daisies on each side and she carried a miniature arrangement of white daisies and ivy.

Dr. Robert P. Wise of Birmingham acted as best man and ushering the guests to their places were Charles M. Kidner, George W. Freidle, Jr., Thomas C. Tilley, Grosse Pointe Farms, Roswell G. Curtis, of Cedar Island Lake, and Thomas Stetman and George Webb, both of Birmingham.

A small reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Clinton Kidner on Provincial road. Mrs. Kidner wore peach brown chiffon over coral pink crepe with a heather and rose trimmed hat and bronze spray orchids.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise of Williamsburg road. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Wise wore hyacinth blue lace and chiffon with a navy hat accented with pink roses and a corsage of matching roses was pinned to her purse.

When the couple left on the motor trip to the south, the new Mrs. Wise was wearing a navy blue gabardine bolero suit and an off-the-face navy bonnet.

Upon their return, they will make their home on Provincial road.
