havior that pays off in any language. It is like good music appreciated by all normal people. The best way to develop the evidence of kindness is to show it to those closest to you — then the habit will spread to others.

Ott-Clark Rites Solemnized in Noon Ceremony

In a military rite, read last Saturday at twelve o'clock noon, Miss Joyce Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert George Clark of Willow Lane, became the bride of Lieut. Col. Walter Wesley Ott of Selfridge Air Force base. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ott of Osyka, Miss.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated in the ceremony at the First Presbyterian church on November 11.

MISS CLARK wore a gown of antique ivory satin, sprinkled with seed pearls and the high neckline was accented by a double standup collar on a fitted bodice. Her full skirt extended into a cathedral train.

Her finger-tip veil fell from a halo of duchesse lace with rose pointe inserts and she carried a rose pointe lace fan highlighted by clusters of spray orchids.

ATTENDING the bride were Mrs. Richard Bork of Detroit as matron of honor; the bride's cousin, Miss Halaire Houston of San Antonio, Tex.; Miss Betty Koebel of Grosse Pointe, Millicent Towar of Detroit and Miss Marjorie Smith of Birmingham as bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore opera length gowns of coronation green net with crushed net accents, matching caps, short white gloves and carried spray orchids.

COL. W. DUNN OTT of Louisville, Ky., served as his brother's best man and ushers were Brig. Gen. Isaac Ott, cousin of the bridegroom from San Antonio, Tex.; Lieut. Col. Francis Gabreski, Lieut. Col. Roger Taylor and Lieut. Col. Lloyd Arnold, all of Selfridge Air base; Lieut. Robert Allen of Louisville, Ky.; Wilts Ott of Osyka, Miss., and Robert E. Clark, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clark selected a gown of mist gray chiffon with beaded fringe detailing on the bodice. A matching gray hat and orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

THE NEW MRS OTT changed to a brown suit, hat and fur jacket for a southern motor trip. Upon their return, the couple will reside at Selfridge field.

Reveal Troth At Sorority Affair

At a dinner given in the Alpha Chi Omega house in Ann Arbor on November 7, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Joan Buckingham of Berkley, to H. Stanley Ford, Jr., of Birmingham.

Miss Buckingham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Buckingham of Eaton road in Berkley and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stanley Ford, Sr., of Rivenoak avenue in Birmingham.

The bride-elect is a senior student at the University of Michigan, where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. The prospective bridegroom was graduated from Notre Dame university.

No immediate wedding plans have been announced by the couple.

AAUW Establishes Recognition Roll; Awards Study Grant

The American Association of University Women is establishing a Birmingham Women's Roll of Recognition. This will be a growing record of leadership in the pioneering phases of women's responsibility in a democracy.

Its purpose is to call attention to the contribution women are making and encourage others to make full use of their abilities.

AT A RECENT meeting of the AAUW, the following women were named to the Roll of Recognition: Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, member of the Birmingham board of education; Mrs. I. W. MacKenzie, past president of AAUW and member of the board of education of Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. Anne Garrigon, who campaigned for public office and has been a major contributor in this community to citizen education in government.

THE ASSOCIATION has also announced the Hildegarde Hagerman John award, a national study grant, given to Miss Vera Jansone, a Latvian woman who was educated in France and is now studying architecture at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

This is the second such award, made by the AAUW in accordance with the policy of the national organization to honor one of its outstanding members. Last year's grant was given in the name of Mrs. Charles Shain.

Club Departments To Meet Next Week

The departmental meetings of the Birmingham Woman's club will be held on November 21.

ALVO Club Plans Activities for Business Girls

The ALVO club of Highland Park YWCA, a group of business and professional girls, is inviting all working girls in this community to visit their Tuesday supper meetings for a month and to join the club and participate in their activities.

ALVO has had a long history in the YWCA branch at 13130 Woodward avenue, and in the past, their programs have included lectures on grooming, parties, movies, trips and service projects.

ALVO, MEANING "all vocations", meets every Tuesday night at 6:15 for supper and after supper follow the programs of their choice. Reservations must be received by Monday noon at the office of Mrs. A. O. Flindt, at the Highland Park YWCA.

ALVO's Christmas plans include a Christmas crafts workshop on November 21, which includes making candles, designing and making stationery and Christmas cards and making gifts in leather.

ON NOVEMBER 28, there will be plenty to do as members make candy and various gifts which they will sell in the branch lobby. The proceeds from this sale will be added to ALVO's contribution to the World Fellowship fund.

On December 12, the club will give a neighborhood concert of Christmas carols and on December 19, the big Christmas party for members and their guests will be held.

THIS SAME YWCA branch in Highland Park is offering an eight-week course in square dancing, open to both men and women.

The course will also include instruction in the polka and schottische. The class begins on Tuesday, November 21, from 7:30 until 8:30 p.m., and will continue each Tuesday at the same hour for eight weeks.

All participants are invited to stay after the lessons and join the dance that is held each Tuesday night from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Highland Park YWCA.
