Movie Stars Head Variety Show Cast at Pierce School
Movie stars, an even dozen of them, will head the bill of entertainment at the Pierce school fair, Nov. 17.

They will not appear in the furs usually associated with Hollywood but in feathers, for they are a troupe of trained birds. The troupe has been featured in several movies and has made several appearances on television variety shows.

A magician and a comedy uncyclc act will round out the show.

To accommodate those attending, two complete performances will be presented, J. R. Fortune and Mrs. Harvey Swift, co-chairmen of the event, announced today.

In addition to the show, which will be presented at 7 and 8 p.m., a full afternoon and evening of fun has been scheduled commencing with movies for children in school at 2 p.m. in the afternoon. The games will commence and the booths will open at 4. The cafeteria will be open and dinner will be available for everyone.

MRS. SWIFT added that the

Information Chief

C. B. KASS

Two Birmingham men have been appointed to the staff of the newly-created information division of the Ethyl Corp. research laboratories in Ferndale.

General Manager Earl Bartholomew said Charles B. Kass,

573 Tooting Lane, was being advanced to the information post after serving as a technical representative in the company's Eastern and Canadian regions.

Donald MacDonald, 3323 N. Adams, formerly in engineering research operations at the laboratories, was named to the information division at the same time.

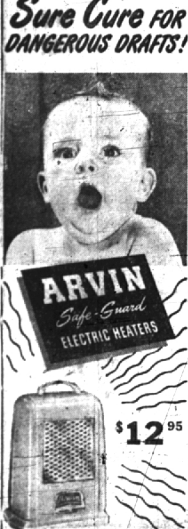

Collection, cataloging and repressing of technical material for company-wide use will be among Kass' and MacDonald's responsibilities.

Additional functions of the information division include the preparation of technical information for use by the automotive and petroleum industries.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.

We Heard It Said By—
FRANKLYN WHITNEY, Birmingham schools athletic director. "There has been some misunderstanding concerning the price of tickets for this year's Birmingham-Royal Oak Thanksgiving day football game. The price was not fixed by Birmingham alone. A joint committee of Birmingham and Royal Oak people worked out the price schedule. The same rates probably will prevail for the game at Royal Oak next year."
