What you think determines what you do, what you are. In business, correct thinking and acting brings success. So it is with your self-government; if you wish to keep freedom, you must think it, then act it!

Ruth Shain Reports On New York Forum

The Ruth Shain International Affairs class, sponsored by the AAUW and the Birmingham Women's club, opened its thirty-first consecutive year with the first regular meeting on Tuesday, October 31.

At this meeting, Mrs. Shain gave part of her report from the Herald-Tribune Forum which she had recently attended in New York.

Next Tuesday morning, November 7, Mrs. Charles Boyd of Pleasant Ridge and Mrs. Henry Foley of Birmingham will talk to the class about European events which would be of interest to international relations.

Mrs. Boyd was a delegate to the International Federation of University Women at Zurich, Switzerland, and has traveled extensively through Europe.

Mrs. Foley, who left Birmingham last March and returned again late this August, spent much of her time in Spain and Italy. Both women visited Oberammergau and Western Germany.

At each of these meetings, a complete program is offered to all women who are interested in attending, as this is not a closed or invitational group.

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Goodwill To Hold 3-Day Antique Show

The Antique Dealers show and sale will be held at the Goodwill Industries British boulevard plant on November 6, 7, and 8 from 11 a.m. until 10 p.m.

There will be 35 exhibitors, several of them from out of the state, as well as from Detroit and other Michigan cities.

It is the goal this year of the Junior Group Goodwill to raise sufficient funds from this antique show to purchase a station wagon which will be used to transport those handicapped employees of the Goodwill Industries to and from their work, who are unable to travel by public transportation.

THEY ALSO HOPE to contribute toward the re-setting up of the print shop which was in use in the old building. This will be a means to expand the program of the Industries, in its effort to provide more work for more handicapped people.

The "Damboree Room", which will be open all day and evening will provide relaxation and luncheon for the visitors. Co-chairmen of the Antique show, Mrs. Clarence A. Kramer and Mrs. Horace W. Frank, are being assisted by Mrs. Raymond Walk, Mrs. Edgar Martner, Mrs. Charles S. Porritt, Mrs. George B. Marth, Mrs. Ernest Bonglin, Mrs. Arthur L. Evelyn, Mrs. Cleary Swanson and Mrs. Harold G. Perkins.

Miss Ann Gardner To Wed This Saturday

Miss Ann Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delvan C. Gardner of Franklin road, will exchange her nuptial vows with Andrew William Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Smith of Grosse Pointe, this Saturday, November 4.

The wedding ceremony will be read in the Metropolitan Methodist church of Detroit.

The bridal attendants will include a sister of the prospective bridegroom, Miss Marilyn Smith with Miss Barbara Bee of Bloomfield Hills and Miss Barbara Wilson of Meadbrook Farms, Rochester, who will fly home from the Garland school in Boston for the event.

The best man will be Thomas Dasher of Detroit and John Winsett, James Shaw and Burton Hennickson will seat the guests.

A Charming Center-Entrance Colonial

Roomy colonial homes, adequate for families with two or more children, are becoming increasingly scarce. The trend in building has been definitely toward the smaller houses.

For the large family, we are pleased to offer this Colonial of excellent style and construction. The first floor contains a living room 15' x 26', a library 9' x 15', dining room 14' x 14', a large kitchen with breakfast nook, also a lavatory and delightful screened porch.

The second floor comprises four rooms, family bedrooms and two tiled baths plus a servants' bedroom and bath. A service stairway connects the servants' quarters with the kitchen.

Other features: 2 car garage, full attic reached by stairway, large recreation room with fireplace, dependable steam heat with oil burner.

Beautifully landscaped lot 120' wide in the Quanton school district. We shall be pleased to have you call for further information.
