

Sennett-Ruhl Nuptials Solemnized at High Noon

Miss Margery Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Zan Ruhl of Purdie road, exchanged her marriage vows with William Fitzgerald Sennett Jr., of Ezzell, Okla., Saturday noon, October 28.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Sennett of Joliet, Ill.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the Princess-style gown, the white tulle frock with self ruffles was cut with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over her hands.

Mrs. William F. Sennett, Jr., wields of the same flowers were in her hair.

Entire Community Invited to Dance

An informal dance, open to the entire community of Birmingham, will be given at the Community House this Saturday evening, November 4.

The dance, sponsored by the Community House, will begin at 8 p. m., with music provided by Jack Rouse's orchestra.

The dance team of Irene Mouten and Darrel Curtis will also be featured in an exhibition performance.

Tickets for the affair are now available at the Community House. This dance is the first of a series of four such gatherings which are open to all local residents, near and old.
