

FRANKLIN NEWS

By ANGELA DADSON
MAYFAIR 4-2441

Holiday Activities

Guests of the George W. Smith Thanksgiving day will be Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Shaw and Mrs. John Shaw of Bloomfield Hills and Smith's sister, Miss Evelyn Smith, of Detroit. Mary Elizabeth, their daughter, will be the guest from Michigan State for the holiday, bringing as her guest Gaby March from Chicago. Sam Brute will spend the day in New York, City with schoolmates.

The Charles W. Taylor will be hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Melville, from Grosse Pointe at Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Holiday guests of the Kenneth Bernans will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vickers and daughter Dawn from Huntington Woods. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Toll, from Ann Arbor, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koddy Son Kenneth, Jr., will be home from Michigan state for the holiday.

Mrs. Doree Larking will spend Thanksgiving with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crisp at Kalamazoo. Mr. and Mrs. John Odoi will be guests for dinner on the holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hubbard, former Franklinites now living at Oxford, Mich.

The Robert Faverty's of Lahser road will spend the holiday at the home of Faverty's sister, Mrs. J. Bernans, in Chicago. The occasion will take on the aspect of a family reunion, with Faverty's father and two other sisters and their husbands in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cody, Birmingham, will be the guests on Thanksgiving day of Mrs. Cody's brother-in-law, Mr. Murphy, at Grosse Pointe.

Dick Greff will be home from Michigan State to be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig, his brother Pete and his sister Gail for the holiday.

Houseguests
The Franklin Frickers will have as a weekend guest, Miss Mary Fricker of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. E. Spade, of Nevada, Mo., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Barr, of Milan, Mich. She will be home from the Barrs the balance of this month.

Mrs. William Beaney, Jr., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Daniels, Telegraph road, has been visiting her parents since mid-November. She will return to her home at Princeton, N. J., after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Daniels and her daughter drove to Strasburg, Ohio, Nov. 13 for a three-day visit with her mother, Mrs. Emil Kapitzyk. Son Tom will be home from Kalamazoo College for the holiday.

Visit Son
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith of the last weekend in New York and in Hartford, Conn., where they visited their son Bruce, a student at Trinity college.

Mrs. John Odoi is home after a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheffer, at Lima, O.

Dear Season
E. D. Squiers, at a hunting lodge

NO GAS PROBLEM—Sgt. Roy Sigler, who participated in the Yank mass parachute jump behind Red lines north of Pyongyang, North Korea, was quick to beat the gas problem by mounting this camera-shy ex.

DEFENSE ASSISTANT—Mrs. Anna Rosenberger recently recommended for the post of Assistant Secretary of Defense, is shown accepting congratulations in her New York Industrial Relations office. The 48-year-old Hungarian-born woman, who has held numerous government jobs, will occupy the highest post in the nation's military establishment ever held by a woman.

at Lewiston since Nov. 15, returned home last Sunday night with a buck. Jim Bowen made good on his hunting trip also.

Dr. Harlow Bates, 13-Mile road, is expected home from his hunting camp near Onaway on Thanksgiving day.

Dr. Duane Larking and his sons John and Jim left last week Wednesday for Hubbard, Mich., to spend five days deer hunting.

Meetings
The Discussion Group met last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bates on Mountain View inlets to extend their plans to hear the sermon and Mrs. Harry Vickers on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10. The group has purchased a block of 80 seats for the performance. A few seats in their group are available to other persons in this area. Those interested should call Mrs. Vernon Fisher.

St. Anne's Guild of Holy Name Church will meet at 12:15 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 29, at the home of Mrs. T. G. Gerlach, 26765 Captains lane. A business meeting will follow the dessert luncheon served by Mrs. Gerlach and co-hostesses, Mrs. R. D. Sarkies and Mrs. T. E. Dadson.

Leaving Franklin
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koch, who have been staying with her parents, the Kenneth Bernans, Captains lane, will move into their new home in Huntington Woods next week.

Adult Classes Plan Exhibition of Work
Work of the Community House's adult education courses will be on display Monday, Nov. 27, from 2 to 10 p.m. It will include the bridge, clothing, interior decorating, millinery, painting, pottery, sculpturing, silverworking, a bird weaving classes.

The exhibit will also include several items from the newly-organized Senior Workshop group. A tea will be served in both first-floor lounges from 2 to 5 p.m., with Mrs. Ewald E. Schaffer and Mrs. T. E. Dadson at the tea tables.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.

Building Permits Issued LAST WEEK

Total	5	$31,900
NEW	Number	Valuation
Single family	3	$30,050
ALTERATIONS
Single family	2	1,900
Permits
Mo. Permits	Totals	1949
Feb.	1	25,000
Mar.	1	261,969
Apr.	1	919,125
May	1	1,038,232
June	1	1,552,289
July	1	1,222,949
Aug.	1	312,763
Sept.	1	1,088,825
Oct.	1	81,456,238
Nov.	1	84,196,812
1950	21	1,456,238

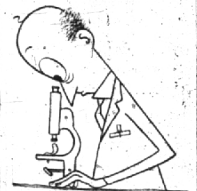

The Birmingham Eccentric
Published every Thursday, at Birmingham, Ala., to the Birmingham Eccentric, 229-232 North Woodward Ave., (Telephone MIchigan 1-909)
GEORGE R. AYERKILL, Editor

Entered as Second Class Matter in the U. S. Post Office at Birmingham, Michigan, under the Act of March 3, 1919.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year (in Oakland County)	$2.00
Six Months (in Oakland County)	1.25
Three Months (in Oakland County)	1.00
One Year	$2.00
Six Months	1.25
Three Months	1.00

NO GAS PROBLEM—Sgt. Roy Sigler, who participated in the Yank mass parachute jump behind Red lines north of Pyongyang, North Korea, was quick to beat the gas problem by mounting this camera-shy ex.

Those Little Things Can Fool You

WHO counts socks, locks and 8 day clocks as valuables? Nobody until after a fire when these and a lot of other "little things" add up to a big loss.

Be wise. Ask for our free Inventory booklet today. Total up all your values big and small and insure them adequately!

Midwest 4-9444
Kenneth J. Hoover
COMPANY
Woodward at 14 Mile Road

'Turkey Bowl' Game Scheduled Between Gray-Y Grid Teams

Adams Gray-Y club will entertain the Poppleton Gray-Y club in a Turkey Bowl game, Friday, Nov. 24 at the city field at Woodcraft and Harmon at 5 p.m.

Last week, Poppleton dropped a 13 to 0 decision in Bloomfield Village when Henry Bartholomew ran and passed his team to the two touchdown decision.

Peter Palone, Billy Cartwright, Jim Garrison, Don Andryae and Richard Ward played best for Bloomfield while Sidney Acton and Richard Waldon picked up considerable yardage for Poppleton but were unable to score.

Adams holds a 19 to 7 win over Bloomfield Village and will be the favorite in the game with Poppleton. This will be the first meeting for these two teams.

Boilder, Colo., owns a glacier, from which it gets its water supply.

VAUGHAN SCHOOL NEWS

The first teacher's party of the year was held last Friday at the school. The evening was featured by a treasure hunt, which took the participants over most of the building and grounds. The party was rounded out with card playing, games and refreshments in the school library.

The committee in charge consisted of Miss Ruth Ziegler, Mrs. Roy Long, Miss Margery Uebel, Stephen Velkoff and Kenneth Olin. Thirty-five teachers and guests were present.

A SADDIE HAWKINS dance was sponsored by the junior class last Saturday evening. During the intermission, a skit was given by the students in which faculty members were parodied. At the last school party, the faculty gave a play which depicted various student types at Vaughan.

Bowling clinics got underway for the students last Tuesday and Thursday at the Bloomfield alley. Faculty sponsor is again Felix Woelke. Student president of the motor league is John Dinan, with Bill Ralsch heading the junior league.

The Girl's league is now conducting a drive for clothing and food to be used in Thanksgiving charities. Joan Levely is president and Mrs. Virginia Condon, faculty adviser.

Obituary Notices

J. STANLEY JACKSON, 89, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Ball, 906 Lakeside, on Nov. 16 after a long illness. He came to Birmingham six weeks ago from Chicago.

Mr. Jackson was born in Plymouth, England, on Feb. 27, 1861, and came to this country as a young man. In his youth he was a telegrapher for several railroads and in later years did court work. He was a member of the National Court Reporters association.

Besides his daughter he is survived by a son, Raymond Jackson of Des Plaines, Ill.

Services were held Saturday afternoon from the Bell funeral home with cremation in White Chapel cemetery.

WILLIAM SCHLESKE, 65, of 12448 Lorretto avenue, Detroit, was buried in White Chapel Me-

Hearing Adjourned For Pembroke Manor Street Improvements

A hearing on street improvements in East Mabry Gardens and Pembroke Manor subdivision has been adjourned until Dec. 4. The hearing was scheduled for Monday evening but as only four city commissioners were present, no action could be taken.

Commissioners Ralph Main and Dean Beier were hunting and John O'Gorman was ill.

also survives. Services were from the Bell funeral home Saturday afternoon with burial in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Schelske died Tuesday as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident. A resident of Birmingham for 10 years, he was born in Detroit on Jan. 15, 1885.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Percy Northrop of Birmingham and Mrs. Rex Johnson of Lake View; a son, Wilbur of Greenville and two brothers, Herman and Julius of Detroit. Three grandchildren also survive.

EDWARD HOLLOWAY, 84, of 344 West Brown, died Nov. 16 after an illness of two years.

Mr. Holloway was born in England on Feb. 2, 1866, and came to Birmingham when he was 20 years old. He had been engaged in the cement contracting business and at one time manufactured concrete blocks here.

He married Mary Elizabeth Black in Windsor, Ont., in 1890, who survives with one son, Homer, who lives in Birmingham. A brother, Charles Holloway of Alberta, Can.,

The Best Gifts come in Mulholland's PACKAGES... THE STORE SANTA BELIEVES IN!

because SANTA BELIEVES IN GIVING AND SO DO WE

We believe in making Christmas shopping a pleasure by giving you the best values, the friendliest, the most interesting selections... and plenty of Christmas fun.

because SANTA BELIEVES IN QUALITY AND SO DO WE

We believe in offering you the finest quality possible for the amount you want to spend. And to know your gift is good... is Christmas pleasure.

because SANTA BELIEVES IN SENSIBLE PRICES AND SO DO WE

We believe it's important to shop within your budget, and we'll help make your dollars buy the presents you want to give... Wise spending means Christmas happiness.

because SANTA BELIEVES IN THOUGHTFULNESS AND SO DO WE

We believe it's hard, often, to find just the right gift. So our wide variety of gifts is thoughtfully chosen. To give you thoughtful help... makes Christmas merrier.

because SANTA BELIEVES IN EFFICIENCY AND SO DO WE

We believe in making Christmas shopping easy with efficient arrangement of gifts, efficient help from our salespeople. Quick, efficient shopping... adds to Christmas gaiety.

because SANTA BELIEVES IN SERVICE AND SO DO WE

We believe that service is important... not only selling service, but credit, wrapping, altering, etc. Good service... is a Christmas shopping delight.

We have stocked our store, this Christmas, with the finest of gifts for every member of the family and many fine gifts for the home, too. Be sure you visit Mulholland's early and see what a pleasure Christmas shopping can be under ideal conditions.

OPEN WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS AND FRIDAY EVENING UNTIL NINE!

Midwest 4-9444
Kenneth J. Hoover
COMPANY
Woodward at 14 Mile Road