

Peruvian Guest Is Honoree of Parties During Local Visit

Senora Adriana de Quesada, Lagarrigue of Lima, Peru is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Pretz of Wing Lake, having arrived from France early in November.

Her son Fortunato attended Cranbrook school before going on to Dartmouth college. Her husband, Dr. Fortunato Quesada is a South American surgeon and at present is Surgeon-General of the Peruvian Army.

Mrs. Pretz, with her mother, Mrs. Bruce K. Harding of Cass Lake spent some weeks with the Quesada family in Lima last winter, while traveling in South America. This is now a return visit and she will remain until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

During her visit in Birmingham, many teas and festive parties have been arranged for Senora Adriana de Quesada by her friends. Among the hostesses participating in her honor was Mrs. F. G. Garrison, who has previously known and visited the Quesadas in Lima.

Also honoring the visitor are Mrs. Russell Barnes, Mrs. Rudolph Zech, Mrs. William W. Williams, Mrs. James P. Mitchell, Mrs. Annette Wauters, Mrs. Robert Schilling, Mrs. Stanley Cain of Ann Arbor, Mrs. John Nickleson of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Bruce K. Harding of Cass Lake and Mrs. William E. Burnett of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Pretz introduced Senora Quesada at a small cocktail party upon her arrival last Friday afternoon, November 24. Mrs. Pretz will honor her guest, as well as Mrs. D'Arcis Wilson, Mrs. Pretz's cousin from Pasadena, Cal., with a tea at her Wing Lake home.

Senora Quesada was honored by Mr. Harry Hoey on November 20, with a visit to Cranbrook school and luncheon with some of the friends of her von Fortunato, who now attends Catholic university in Lima and is attached to the State Department of the Peruvian government.

A noteworthy development in the past year has been the use of new production processes. For example, "plastiprene," a new resin method for producing shoes with high service ratings, is available with the aid of last year's sales.

General display advertising deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Mask and Wig Club To Present Satire, "Count Me In"

When the Mask and Wig club of the University of Pennsylvania invades the Music Hall in Detroit with "Count Me In" on December 29, they will have the enthusiastic support of many of their local friends.

"Count Me In" is the sixty-third annual production of the Wiggers, an all-male undergraduate dramatic group of the university. It is a high-powered musical comedy replete with gay dancing, singing and scenes satirizing recent census activities.

The show plays for a week in Philadelphia, then embarks on a tour of 13 eastern cities, covering more than 10,000 miles and appearing before more than 50,000 people.

Mrs. John J. O'Brien of Detroit and chairman of the patroness committee has announced the support of many additional patrons, including a group from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area. Some of the localities who have been named include Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Mrs. Earl W. Holley and Mrs. A. E. Johnson.

Photos must be submitted by noon each Friday to insure publication the following Thursday.
