

UF Survey To Determine Area Needs In Health, Welfare

The aims of a health and welfare survey for the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin area were discussed Monday, Nov. 27, when representatives of several local organizations met with Charles X. Sampson, who has had similar experience in Troy, N. Y., Boston, Mass., and Providence, R. I., came to Birmingham after a local request was made with the Trov-Rio United Foundation for such a study.

Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, executive director for UF activities here, stated that Sampson would work only to determine what was being done in the area and how it could be improved through change or additional services. Working closely with him will be these members of the United Foundation advisory committee:

COMMUNITY COUNCIL, Mrs. F. G. Garrison; Family Service association, Mrs. I. Hollister Martiney and Miss Estelle Martiney; Birmingham public-schools, Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent; parochial schools, Thomas Aavanagh; Police department, Sgt. Henry Tims and Chief Ralph Moxley; Community House, Chas. Kass; Birmingham Council of Churches, The Rev. Arnold Runkel; service club, Clarence Vliet and public health, Mrs. Anyce Gillette.

Mrs. Mabley stated she was very happy to see such a survey being made here since she felt the community needed to know, before it starts any new program, just what is being done. She also stressed the need for the area to go along with the county in planning for the future.

DR. IRELAND expressed the need of emotional guidance for the children enrolled in local schools. He said their emotional disturbance reflected in their school work and that it should be known how to best help them.

Wilson, Kass and Paul Averill also expressed their approval of the survey, saying they felt it could be of great benefit to the area.

Sampson pointed out that another reason for the survey was to find the direction of growth in the area in order to plan for the future. "The survey is not to stop by simply revealing present accomplishments or needs, but is planned to care for the expansion of future years as much as possible," he said.

Another meeting of the advisory committee and Sampson is scheduled for Saturday morning in the Baldwin public library conference room, when early facts will be presented for discussion.

Junior 'Y' Cagers To Meet Fisher YMCA Saturday

The Birmingham YMCA junior boys team will meet the Fisher 'Y' team in Detroit Saturday at 2 p.m. These boys, averaging 13 years of age, will play locally or away each Saturday against grade school players of the same age.

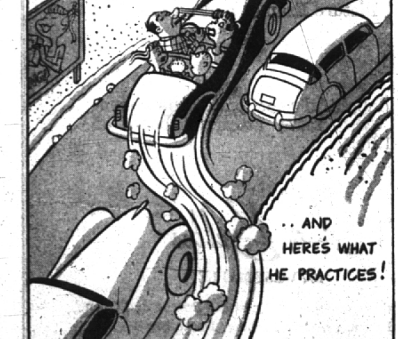

Members of the squad are Dick DeLoria, Ken Witherspoon, Chuck Poole, Andy Fairbanks, Don Keen-to, Bob Machus, Henry Burkart, Harold Mitchell and Ken Mahrie. Places are still open on the squad for boys who have not reached their 15th birthday and who are not members of local grade school or junior high quintets.

Home games for this group will be played at the First Baptist church gym. At present, no coach has been selected but the group will continue to meet each Saturday morning from 11 to 12 at the Baptist church.
