Art Exhibition Slated at Hill, Barnum Schools

A new group of paintings from the Art masterworks loan project of the University of Michigan is on display at Hill school until Friday, Dec. 1 and will be at Barnum school from Dec. 4 to Dec. 8. This display features prints by Dutch and Spanish artists.

The paintings include "The Wedding Dance" by Pieter Huys, "The Elderly" by Pieter de Hooch, "Imaginary Landscape" by Corneille van Maanen and "Child With Angels" by Hans Memling; "Young Woman With a Water Jug" and "Woman Reading" by Jan Van Meer.

Others are "The Laughing Cavalier" by Frans Hals, "Don Baltasar Carlos" by Diego Velazquez, "Don Manuel Asorio de Zuniga" by Francisco Goya and "The Young Man" by Francisco Goya.

IT SAYS HERE...

BY ANN NONIMUS

THE BIG WEEKEND finally ended and everyone is back again at studies. We all had enough turkey to last until next Thanksgiving.

Some of the alumni cheering at the muddy game Thursday morning were Nancy Beck, Patti Bloom, Joan Schaefer, Nancy Howell, Kemp, Joe Ross, Ann Tannanelli, Millie McIntyre, Mae Boy, Clayton Joyce, Tom Maxwell and Bud Boynton. We hear some of them, along with present day students, even had a snake dance through our home town.

DJFR HELD ITS annual Drumming on Thursday with a few parties given before.

THE HOST CLUB members gave a party at Dave Hunt's home. All dressed up and ready for the dance were Carver Hendrix, Barbara Rosborough, Ronnie Phillips, Nancy Clinege, Paul Triebel, Ben Streidinger, Bob Johnson, George Clarke, Joanne Greiner, Ken Rowe, Joy Sauberhan, Jim Newman, Betty Timmerman, John Bowie and Jane Kehr.

CRISS ADAMS was hostess at a small dinner given for a few alumni and their dates. Enjoying themselves were Joanne Sprinkle, Pete Plomstead, Betty Beardsley, Ward Abbott, Marilyn Hart, Dick Dean and Tom Good.

AMONG THOSE swinging to the music at the Drumstick hall were Harry Frantz, Georgia Roehm, Bill Karnold, Mary Hopking, Art Fairbanks, Sara Stringer, Mattus, Jane Mills, Joe McMillin, Mary Halliday, Bob Littleton and Sandra Tischer. Admittance certainly leads to success.

IT WAS GOOD to see all of the alumni home again. We hope to see even more of them at Christmas time.

In charge of tickets are chairman Mrs. Albert Shira, Mrs. Calvin Dennison, Mrs. Arthur Fairbanks, Mrs. Edward Rickelman, Mrs. Roy Tewillinger, Mrs. Manley Tyson, and Mrs. Arbie Thalacker.

THE INVITATION committee was headed by Mrs. A. A. Appoldford working with Mrs. Martin Rummel and Mrs. Mark Kravus. Mrs. Webster Schrefle and Mrs. James Donaldson will take care of hospitality. The decorating committee consisted of chairman Mrs. Otto L. Newman, Mrs. A. J. Ayers and Mrs. George Coleman.

Place cards were made by Mrs. George Shave and her committee of Mrs. Mark Hardin and Mrs. L. K. Power.

TROY CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL NEWS

The Troy High school student council was recently organized under the direction of Principal Charles Dove. Officers are president, Eric Ernst; vice-president, Arthur Dear; secretary, Janet Robertson; and treasurer, Annette Berg.

Other council members are Nancy Arthur, James Lee, John Acton, David Strimman, Neil Mullins, Barbara Boulan, Pat Cornish and Don Powell. The group recently attended a Michigan high school conference on citizenship at the University of Michigan.

MEMBERS of the high school speech class, debate teams and senior class were recent guests at a demonstration debate between teams from Wayne university and Western Reserve university of Cleveland, Ohio. The affirmative squad was from Wayne and the negative, Western Reserve.

The question was: "Resolved: That the American people should reject the welfare state." Troy high school speech instructor, Darrel Hackett arranged the visit. Starting its first year of debate, the Troy high school debate squad met Clarenceville there last week, and both sides lost opening decision. The affirmative side is headed by Johanna Woolsey and Donald Piotrowski with Mary Haney and Elizabeth Herweyer on the negative side.

The Troy team will travel to St. Clair Shores for a meet Friday, Dec. 1.

The high school junior class will sponsor a dance at the school Friday, Dec. 1, from 8:30 to 12.

THE HIGH SCHOOL honor roll for the first marking period has been announced. Those named are as follows:

Ninth grade: Mary Armstrong, Beverly Bradley, Fred Burnard, Lita Campbell, Barbara Catto, Virginia Davis, Shirley Fraser, Carolyn Gibson, Richard Haley, William Haney, Beverly Heckman, Beverly Herr, Elizabeth Herweyer, Helen King.

Tenth grade: June Akers, Viola Apantaw, Paula Baugh, Helen Blackwell, Shirley Clovis, Phyllis Dupuis, Joanne Fielding, Connie Gac, Geraldine Gannon, Sharon Garney and James Ginter.

Annual Cranbrook Erg Christmas Play To Open Friday

Finishing touches were put on "The Man Who Came to Dinner" at Cranbrook Ergasterion's 22nd annual Christmas play, by director Robert Stevenson and assistant director Robert Hoffman, preparatory to the opening tomorrow evening in the Cranbrook School auditorium.

Playing the eccentric writer, a role patterned after the late Alexander Woollcott, will be Eric's president, Gene Toifree. The dehorner secretary, Maggie, will be played Friday night by Cynthia Hepburn and Saturday evening by Pat Hogan.

Lynn Holland will play the martyred nurse, Jo Anne Wonnberger and Carol Faulkner the cook, Mary Barton and Jane Phillips the ingenue and Jon Desenberg the juvenile.

AS DR. METZ, the eccentric roach specialist, Kai Schoenka will appear, and Chris Huntley will play the assisting doctor, Tom Hawley, Ray Brant, Buddy Moore, Jim August, Harriet Scott and Jean Moore will comprise the cast.

Preceding the main performance, "The Exchange," a play by Althea Thurston, directed by Eric's Adviser Carl G. Wonnberger will feature Buddy Moore, Bob Whitlatch, Jim Robertson, Jim August, Liz Metcalf and Julie Ditchy. Tickets will be available at the door.

Pierce School PTA Fair Great Success

The annual Pierce school PTA fair which was held Nov. 17, was the biggest financial success in its history, according to Malcolm V. Ferguson, principal of the school.

Almost $2,000 was taken in during the day he reported. The co-chairmen were J. Robert Fortune and Mrs. Emma Swift. The auditorium was filled for both stage shows which were presented at 8 and 8, and the cafeteria prepared dinners for 700.

Money taken in on the fair goes for the annual budget of the PTA which is $500. The balance of the proceeds is used for some useful items in the school. Last year the PTA purchased a public address system for the auditorium, $100 worth of library books, $100 worth of activities materials and two chrome coffee servers.

The fair is the group's only money making project during the year.
