

Saying justifiably nice things about others is a way to develop a good disposition. It is like the sun coming through a bank of clouds warming people and the good earth. (Deserved praise, when it comes your way, makes you feel good within, too.)

Village Players To Perform for "Nifty Night"

This Saturday, November 11, the members of the Village Players will have a "Nifty-Night", beginning at 9 p.m. in the Playhouse. The "nifties" will open the evening's program with William Kegel acting as master of ceremonies, to be followed by card games and dancing, under the direction of Mrs. Howard McDonald. MOMS Will Meet To Plan Holiday Aid

The Birmingham MOMS club, and its meet with Mrs. Norman Lytle on East Maple avenue next Thursday, November 16, from 2 until 4 p.m. Mrs. Fred Durham of Dearborn, who has charge of giving ribbles to the boys in the Veterans Hospital, will be the main speaker. Mrs. Kenneth Fausk, national president of the MOMS; Mrs. C. M. Beebe, national chairman of hospital work; and Mrs. A. T. Kirkwood, who is state chairman of hospitals, will also give brief talks.

THEY ARE expected to tell the group something of the Christmas plans which are being formulated for hospitalized boys. Mrs. John Rosso, assisted by Mrs. Ross Adams and Mrs. M. A. Dufour, will be in charge of a tea following the meeting.

Mrs. Earl Cunningham, club president, will be in charge of the group's business meeting.

The MOMS have will be held in the Community House on November 30, in order to raise funds to assist Mrs. Nancy DiPiazza's social service committee in their holiday project for service men's families.

IN DECEMBER the club will meet in the evening to wrap gifts for the children of some of Oakland County's hospitalized servicemen.

Any woman who has a son in service or about to enter service is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Mrs. Kiefer To Be Town Meeting Guest
On Tuesday morning, November 14, Rose M. Kiefer, executive secretary of the National Association of Retail Grocers will speak at the Women's Town Meeting of Detroit.

Through her close contact with some 55,000 of America's retail grocers, Mrs. Kiefer is in constant touch with food problems, and her talk, "Dollars Make Poor Eating," will be of special interest to women.

Following her program, a luncheon honoring Mrs. Kiefer will be held at 12:15 p.m. in the Detroit Athletic Club.

Detroit Artists To Present Local Concert Program

A concert program, sponsored by the Soroptimist club of Birmingham, for the purpose of raising funds for cancer research, will be presented at 8:30 p.m., on November 15, at the Birmingham Community House.

The club has obtained the services of two outstanding artists for this event.

ARTHUR BENAVIDE

He will complete the program with Scherzo Tarantelle by Wieniawski.

Tickets for the concert are now available at the Birmingham Community House, 200 1/2 E. 11th St., and from members of the club.

Mrs. W. Merrill To Address AAUW Group

"Voice Projection" is subject for the discussion which Mrs. Wellington O. Merrill will conduct at the November meeting of the Children's Theater of AAUW.

All members and their friends are invited to attend this meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. George F. Green, 156 Warren court, on Wednesday, November 15, at 1:15 p.m.

Mrs. Merrill is known in Birmingham and throughout Michigan for her work in the W. H. O. Way theater. Members of the audience will be selected by Mrs. Merrill to demonstrate what can be done to control and improve the voice in relation to theatrical performances.

For the second of the three-play series, in January, given by the Children's Theater, the Wayne University Players will present, "Jack and the Beanstalk."

He will complete the program with Scherzo Tarantelle by Wieniawski.

Tickets for the concert are now available at the Birmingham Community House, 200 1/2 E. 11th St., and from members of the club.

To Sponsor Annual Publicity Clinic Nov. 20 in Detroit

Publicity Magic, the fourth annual publicity clinic given by the Detroit chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism fraternity, will be held Monday evening, November 20, at 8 p.m., in the Rackham Memorial building.

Club presidents and publicity chairmen of non-profit organizations may learn how to use the various media of publicity from clinic speakers in the newspaper, radio and public relations fields.

THE SPEAKERS will include Dick Shannon, assistant advertising manager of the Detroit Edison company on "Why Publicity?"; Lois Culmer Rivett, woman editor of the South Macomb News and staff writer for the Mt. Clemens Monitor-Leader, on "What Makes a Good News Story?"; Gerry King, garden editor of the Detroit News, on "When, Where and How"; and Franklin Mitchell, program director of radio station WJLB, on the topic, "What About Radio?"

QUESTIONS WILL be asked the speakers by a panel composed of Mrs. Malcolm D. MacQueen, treasurer of the Auxiliary to the Salvation Army; Mrs. W. J. Yeager, executive secretary of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce; and Mrs. A. P. I. Anderson, press chairman of the Detroit Panhellenic Club.

Registrations should be sent to Mrs. Lawrence Middleman, 10064 Penrod, Detroit 23, or tickets may be purchased at the clinic.

Plan Team Banquet

Mothers of the boys of the cross country team met November first at Baldwin high school to plan a

ON A SPARKLING BLOOMFIELD LAKE

This splendid English residence offers the ultimate in luxurious living. Everything about it, outside and within, speaks of wealth and good taste.

On a 200 ft. wide lot, gently sloping toward Vhay Lake, the views from the living room, library and glassed-in porch are delightful. A beautiful garden with terraced slope between house and waterfront is charming from April to November.

No fine estate in Bloomfield Hills is more convenient to highway and fast train service to Detroit than this is. Yet, the architect has contrived, by a walled-in motor court and an unusual entrance court, to give such privacy to this place as few houses enjoy.

On the first floor we have a living room, 22' x 29', a very unusual dining room, 13 1/2' x 27', breakfast room, sun room, butler's pantry and a huge kitchen with stainless steel counter tops, etc.

On the second floor are two lovely suites, each with two rooms and tiled bath; also three single bedrooms with two additional baths; also a splendid second floor library and lounging room 22' x 29' with fireplace. The luxurious quality of the library, bedrooms and baths on this floor must be seen to be appreciated.

There are very adequate servants' quarters above the 4-car garage.

All tucked-down carpets included. Offered at a price far below the cost to reproduce. You should see this.
