Beautiful, ages-old custom

FROM even before Biblical times the giving of Gifts has been a beautiful custom. Through century after century the Gift has been the silent ambassador of friendship and esteem!

And so it continues today—for there is no substitute to match the ages-old custom of the Gift. Nothing less carries quite the same meaning, and eloquence, and expression of true friendship.

For Christmas this Shop, which specializes in Gifts throughout the year, has brought together the most beautiful gift-collection ever in the more than two decades we have been known as "Birmingham's Shop of Gifts, Books and Stationery."
