by her sister, Miss Eleanor F. Duffour as maid of honor and Roy Stockwell, brother of the bridegroom will serve as best man. The ushers will be Fred Buddie of Berkley and Donald Carls of Ferndale.

Among the recent parties honoring Miss Duffour was a personal shower given on September 24 by Mrs. Michael Ureel in her home on S. Creechbrook road. Mrs. Henry Duffee and Mrs. Ross Baxter were co-hostesses at a linen shower given in the latter's Euclid avenue home on October 4.

LAST SUNDAY, October 8, Mrs. Andrew Trainer feted the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower in her Green Lake home, and another miscellaneous shower will be given this evening, October 12, by Mrs. William Nobel at her home in Royal Oak.

On Tuesday, October 10, Miss Rosemary Friday was hostess for a kitchen party at her Royal Oak home.

Miss Brennan Becomes Bride of Bernard Levinson

Following a motor trip to New York and Connecticut, the young Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Levinson were married in their home on Birmingham boulevard.

Preceding her Thursday morning marriage to Bernard Nye Levinson, Mrs. Levinson was the former Mary Ellen Brennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Joseph Brennan of Mt. Pleasant in Detroit. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Levinson of Northlawn road.

The Rev. Vincent Brennan, read the 11 o'clock ceremony in Gesu church of Detroit.

THE BRIDE chose an ivory satin gown with long sleeves of Chinese Chantilly lace and a stand up collar of the same lace. Her circular train was also edged with the lace and a small lace cap held her finger-tip veil in place. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Fujii mums and stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Ann Brennan, her sister's maid of honor, wore a gown of gold brocade with tiny fitted jacket trimmed in chiffon velvet and carried a cascade bouquet of chrysanthemums with ivy.

Bridesmaids, the Misses Maurine O'Donnell, Mary Ann Helm of Detroit and Marian McCann of Royal Oak, were gowned in green brocade with darker green velvet accents and their bouquets were of mums and ivy.

CHARLES WRAY CRANDELL of Birmingham assisted as best man and the ushers were James Couzens and Donald Robinson of Birmingham, Lee Embrey of Pleasant Ridge with John Rometty and Thomas Fisher of Detroit.

A reception at Oakland Hills Country club followed the ceremony after which the couple left on their honeymoon.

The bride's going-away attire consisted of a brown and white houndstooth three-piece suit, brown hat and matching accessories.

Engaged

MISS PATRICIA HOLT

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hulbert Strouse of Fairfax road announce the engagement of Mrs. Strouse's daughter, Miss Patricia Holt, to John Howard Newell, formerly of Springfield, Mass., and now of New York.

He is the son of Mrs. Robert Sessions Newell of Easton, Pa., and the late Mr. Newell. Miss Holt is the daughter of the late Major W. C. Stanley Holt, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Louis B. Auger of Detroit and the late Mr. Auger.

The bride-elect attended schools in Bronxville, N. Y., and Detroit and is a graduate of Pine Manor Junior college. She also attended the University of Vermont, where she was affiliated with Beta Phi sorority.

Her fiancé attended Syracuse university where he was a member of the fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta. He served with the Army Engineers for three years and was in the European theater during World War II. He is now employed in New York.

The couple is planning an early winter wedding.

BOY SCOUTS

Last Tuesday, the fourteen Brownies of troop 38 at Adams school held their meeting at the Girl Scout cabin in Springdale Park and also entertained as their guest, Mrs. A. D. Gilliam, camping chairman for the Girl Scout council of Birmingham. Mrs. Gilliam initiated the Brownies into the proper practices of cabin use, fire making and general rules for safe and enjoyable outdoor activities as a group.

The fourth grade girls composing this troop are Dana Voss, Judy Cowman, Jean Stinson, Joanne Brown, Jean Deyo, Gail Symons, Carol Viers, Caroline Sapp, Judy Wakefield, Barbara Caron, Carolyn Warrick, and Barbara McKee. Mrs. Frederick Warrick is leader of the troop and is assisted by Mrs. Douglas Giles.

Another visit to the Girl Scout cabin is planned for their next meeting, when Miss Polly Hanson, who will teach them new songs, will be their guest.

Plan Harvest Dinner

Plans are under way for the annual Harvest Home dinner, to be held at the First Methodist church, on Thursday evening, November 2, from 5:30 until 7 o'clock, to which the public is invited.

Mrs. Tom Harris is to be general chairman for the dinner!

Couple Married October Seventh In Jackson Rites

St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church of Jackson, Mich., was the scene of the October 7 marriage of Miss Beverly Joanne Swope to Willard Martin Hoefnagle. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Swope of Jackson and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Hoefnagle of Concord, Mich.

The bride wore a gown of ivory heirloom satin with rose point lace on the fitted bodice, and a hoop skirt. An ivory pearl orange blossom tiara held her finger-tip illusion veil which was trimmed in rose point flowers and she carried ivory roses.

MISS DELORES A. SWOPE, attending her sister as maid of honor, wore a gold taffeta frock with matching mitts and a sweet-heart brim hatpiece trimmed with dark burgundy chrysanthemums, which were repeated in her bouquet.

Mrs. C. W. Lubahn, as bridesmaid, wore a copper taffeta gown styled like that of the honor maid, and she carried an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums. Another bridesmaid, Mrs. S. E. Burns, a sister of the bridegroom, from Birmingham, was gowned in turquoise taffeta and carried bronze mums.

TIMOTHY BURNS of Birmingham, assisted his uncle as ring bearer and tiny Valerie Hammond, three year old cousin of the bride, attended as flower girl.

Ralph C. Hoefnagle served his brother as best man, while Henry Wagner of Birmingham, Clarence Lubahn, Howard Bush, a cousin of the bride, and Sam Burns of Birmingham, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, sent the guests.

Following a reception in the church, the couple left on a wedding trip through the eastern states, after which the couple will be at home on Forbes street in Jackson.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests attending the ceremony arrived from Birmingham, Farmington, Monroe, Sault Ste. Marie, Kalamazoo, Detroit, Lansing, Ann Arbor, Concord, Belleville, Ill., and Hamler, Ohio.

Among the parties honoring the bride-elect before her Saturday afternoon wedding, was a linen shower given by Mrs. S. Burns of Birmingham.
