Rehearsing Scene from "Born Yesterday"

Mrs. Roy G. Leitch, Jr., and Weston Meyer add up the score in the famous gin rummy game in "Born Yesterday," Garson Kanin's comedy which is being produced by St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook. The play will be presented at the Cranbrook Pavilion tomorrow evening and Saturday, October 13 and 14, and again on Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21.

All White Wedding Is Event of Saturday Evening

Before an altar banked by candleabra, ferns and white floral arrangements, Miss Dorothy Mae Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harold Stevens of Lakeside drive, became the bride of Carroll Osmon Voorheis. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Voorheis of Orchard Lake road in Walled Lake, and the late Mr. Voorheis.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the eight o'clock ceremony last Saturday evening, October 7, in St. James Episcopal church.

ESCORTED DOWN the aisle by her father, Miss Stevens was gown in white satin and imported lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a petal motif outlining the v-neckline and highlighted with lace insets at the neck and down the long pointed sleeves. The neckline was accented with seed pearls and the hoop skirt extended into a full length train with lace insets.

From a coronet headdress of pearls and beading, first worn by the bride's aunt, fell her finger-tip veil of illusion and she carried a white orchid with roses atop a white prayer book. A lace bordered handkerchief, carried by

MRS. CARROL VORHEIS her paternal grandmother for her wedding, completed the bride's ensemble.

ATTENDING the bride were Mrs. John A. Voorheis of Pontiac, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, as matron of honor; Mrs. Edward McClure of Frank street; Mrs. Emil Salay of Flint, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Edward Stevens of Falls Church, Va., the bride's aunt, as bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore identical strapless frocks of white taffeta, over which were fitted cap-sleeved jackets, buttoning down the back to a bow at the waist. Their gauntlets and bonnet brim style headresses matched the gowns and they carried colonial bouquets of shaded pink roses with white carnations.

A BROTHER of the bridegroom, John A. Voorheis of Pontiac, served as best man, with Richard Stevens, brother of the bride; Robert Young of Walled Lake; Herbert Broughton of Walnut Lake road; and Douglas Hallett of Walled Lake, seating the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and following reception in their Lakeside drive home, Mrs. Stevens selected a peacock blue crepe gown with beading trim at the neckline, a gray hat trimmed in matching blue, and gray accessories. Mrs. Voorheis chose a pale rose crepe outfit with beading trim, matching hat and gray accessories. Both mothers wore baby orchid corsages.

BEFORE THE NEW Mr. and Mrs. Voorheis left for a motor trip through the Smoky Mountains, Kentucky and Tennessee, the bride donned a heather beige fitted suit with chocolate brown accessories. Both mothers wore baby orchid corsages.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Birmingham.

Departments of Woman's Club To Hold Meetings

The departmental meetings of the Birmingham Woman's club will be held on October 17, with the fine arts group meeting at the home of Mr. Z. M. Bricker, 675 Ridgecrest road for a 12:30 p.m. luncheon.

The guest for the afternoon will be Mr. Leitch, who will speak on interior decorating. Mrs. Nelson Miles will be the luncheon chairman with Mrs. Thomas Macksey and Mrs. Emerson Brown serving on her committee.

The American home department will meet with Mrs. Wayne Brenkert of 2645 Irving road in Franklin, for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon.

Mrs. Herbert Gardner will present the program "America's Heritage in Song." Many of the unfamiliar songs will be presented by Mrs. Ray Smith, accompanied by Mrs. David Metley.

The literature department will meet at the home of Mrs. J. H. McBride, 771 Henrietta street, for a one o'clock luncheon. A surprise program will be presented by Mrs. Carl Binkle. Serving on the luncheon committee will be Mrs. M. J. Dear, Mrs. Ralph Main and Mrs. J. H. Kosse.

Altar Society Names Chairmen for Sale

Mrs. J. J. Fredericksen, general chairman of the rummage sale sponsored by the Altar Society of Holy Name church, has announced that Mrs. Constant Bouchard will assist her as co-chairman of the sale. Mrs. William G. Knurr, Mrs. James G. Shannon and Mrs. Robert Leary are working as the committee on poster-publicity.

Workers will include members from each of the twelve churches which comprise the Altar society. Captains of the working teams include Mesdames Anthony D. Luciano, O. R. Schubert, Lewis Baker, Charles Rigdon, John Gerard, E. W. Dusbabeier and H. J. Wickman.

All contributions of clothing, jewelry, books, furniture, lamps, rugs and draperies will be gratefully received. Articles may be left at the Altar house and a pickup for all large items can be arranged by calling the church rectory.

The sale will be held next Thursday and Friday, October 19, and 20 at Welch's Chrysler showroom on south Woodward avenue, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Proceeds from the sale will go to the special equipment fund for the auxiliary in the new wing of Holy Name school.

Ninety per cent of Naval personnel trained by the Pacific Fleet Training Command had never been to sea before.
